1.12 Bail Bonds Agents

The various courthouses within the Stanislaus County Superior Court are public buildings that must be accessible to persons with court related business. Because the courthouse buildings have smaller lobby and hallway areas, it is particularly important to ensure that individuals without legitimate court business do not loiter in the public areas or act in such a way as to congest or clog the lobby or hallway areas, making it difficult for people with court related business to access the court.

Title 10 Section 2074 of the California Code of Regulation limits solicitation by bail agents in courthouses and provides that courts may prohibit such solicitation altogether by local rule. Pursuant to this authority as well as its inherent and statutory authority, the Court prohibits all solicitation by bail agents within courthouse buildings. Solicitation by bail agents shall also be prohibited on that portion of courthouse property surrounding public entrances and exits to the courthouses.

Bail agents shall not loiter on courthouse property in a manner that clogs or congests the lobby or hallway areas of the courthouse or otherwise restricts the public's ability to access the courthouse for court-related business. This rule is not intended to prohibit bail agents from meeting with existing clients on courthouse property when said meetings concern court related business. (7/1/08)

1.13 Comfort and Services Animals

- A. The Americans with Disabilities Act (hereafter “ADA”) and the Unruh Act prohibit the exclusion of service animals from public accommodations, including courthouses. It is the Court’s policy to comply with all applicable federal and State law concerning service animals and to ensure that Court staff and security personnel are advised of the Court’s obligations concerning “service animals.”
1. A “service animal” is any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual or other mental disability.
 2. Miniature horses that have been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for people with disabilities may also be considered “service animals”.
 3. Emotional support, therapy, comfort, or companion animals (“comfort animals”) are not considered “service animals”.
 4. No person may bring a “comfort animal” into a court building without first obtaining permission to do so as set forth in this rule.
- B. A party may request the presence of a comfort animal to support a witness at a trial or other court proceeding by filing a written motion.
1. The motion shall be supported by a declaration(s) setting forth:
 - a) Facts sufficient to establish the presence of a comfort animal would assist or enable the witness to testify without undue harassment or embarrassment and provide complete and truthful testimony;
 - b) A description of the comfort animal, i.e., species, breed, size, etc.;
 - c) A description of the training the comfort animal received, including information regarding the ability of the comfort animal to remain quiet and in one position during extended court proceedings.
 2. When ruling on a motion to allow the presence of a comfort animal, the Court will exercise its discretionary authority to control the mode and manner in which evidence is presented (Evid. Code § 765) and consider, among other things, the potential for prejudice to the opposing party(ies), if the motion were granted.

3. The court may issue an order granting a motion to allow the presence of a comfort animal on any conditions it deems appropriate.
- C. If the motion to allow the presence of a comfort animal is granted, the moving party shall:
1. Designate a qualified handler for the comfort animal. The handler shall maintain control of the comfort animal at all times it is in a court building or on court property and shall immediately clean up after the comfort animal.
 2. Provide the handler with a court-endorsed “Filed” copy of the order granting the motion. The handler shall present the order to Court Security Personnel upon entering a court building and at other times upon request.
 3. Reimburse the court for any damages caused by the comfort animal to court property.
 4. Indemnify, defend and hold harmless the court, its judicial officers and its employees from any claims for damages arising from the use or presence of a comfort animal in a court building or on court property.
 5. Name the “Superior Court of California, County of Stanislaus” as an additional insured on any policy of comprehensive general liability insurance issued to the moving party. However, this provision only applies if such insurance is available to the moving party.
- D. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to limit the access of any person in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act or the Unruh Civil Rights Act (Civil Code § 51 et seq.).
- E. The court may revoke an order granting a motion to allow the presence of a comfort animal. Grounds for revocation include, but are not limited to, the comfort animal and/or handler disrupting court proceedings, or undue prejudice to the opposing party(ies), if the comfort animal were allowed to remain in the court building.

- B. A file shall be maintained showing each complaint and its disposition.
- C. The ADR Administrator shall review each complaint within thirty (30) days. A complaint that is frivolous or unfounded on its face may be disposed of without further action, but the complainant shall be informed of the disposition and a memorandum shall be placed in the file.
- D. A preliminary inquiry shall be made on any complaint that has possible validity. A copy of the complaint should be supplied to the mediator, neutral evaluator or arbitrator who shall be allowed an opportunity to respond. The preliminary inquiry may be terminated if the complaint is found to be lacking in merit or an acceptable explanation is offered.
- E. When the preliminary inquiry indicates that a complaint, not minor in nature, appears to have validity or there is other good cause including other complaints, the ADR Administrator shall refer the complaint to the presiding civil judge who will appoint a committee of judges to conduct further investigation. The mediator, neutral evaluator or arbitrator should be presented a written statement of the allegations and provided an opportunity to respond either orally or in writing.
- F. At the conclusion of the investigation, the committee should make a written report and recommendation(s) for action to be taken by the court. The recommendations may include, but are not limited to: No further action be taken on the complaint; that a reprimand be given to the mediator, neutral evaluator or arbitrator; that the mediator, neutral evaluator or arbitrator be suspended or removed from the court's panels; or that the mediator, neutral evaluator or arbitrator be referred for additional training. - H. The complaint at all stages shall be handled as promptly as due process allows.

3.15 Prerogative Writs

A. Alternative Writ or Noticed Motion for a Peremptory Writ.

A prerogative writ, also known as an extraordinary writ, begins with filing a verified petition. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1096.) Mandamus is the customary prerogative writ sought in the trial court. There are two means by which a party may set a mandamus petition for trial: noticed motion for a peremptory writ and alternative writ. The noticed motion procedure is strongly preferred by the Court.

B. Noticed Motion for a Peremptory Writ.

A petitioner filing a noticed motion for peremptory writ may file a verified petition for the writ and then serve it on the respondent and any real party-in-interest in the manner of serving summons and complaint. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1088.5.)

1. Trial Setting Conference. The Court will hold a trial setting conference at which it will set the dates for record preparation, briefing of the motion, and a hearing date. The hearing on the motion is the trial of the case.
2. Timing of the Hearing. The Court generally will not set the matter for hearing until it is assured that any required administrative record has been prepared or that there is adequate time for gathering and organizing the evidence in a traditional mandamus case. Setting trial before these assurances have been made would only unnecessarily clog the Court's calendar and require continuance of trial.

C. Alternative Writ.

A petitioner seeking issuance of an alternative writ must apply first for the alternative writ directing the agency to take action or, in the alternative, show cause why it has not done so. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1087.) The application must be accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities. The Court may grant the alternative writ and set an order to show cause, or it may deny the writ outright.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

An alternative writ issued by a trial court is not a determination of the petition's final merit. It serves the function of a summons and, when properly served, provides the trial court with jurisdiction over the opposing party.

If an alternative writ is granted, the subsequent order to show cause hearing is the hearing on the merits of the petition.

1. Prior Service of Application. An alternative writ may not issue on an ex parte basis without proper notification. Absent a showing of good cause or waiver by the responding party, the petition, application for alternative writ, memorandum, and proposed alternative writ must be served on the respondent and any real party-in-interest pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1010 et seq. at least five days before the alternative writ hearing. Although service by mail is permitted, personal service is preferred. Proof of service is required with the application. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1107.)
2. Briefing Schedule and Hearing Date. Issuance of the alternative writ places the matter on the Court's calendar for an order to show cause hearing. It does not by itself result in a stay or afford any affirmative relief. A briefing schedule will be set by the Court as part of the alternative writ.
3. Service of Alternative Writ. The alternative writ and the order for its issuance (as well as the petition and other supporting papers if not previously served in this manner) must be served on the respondent and any real party-in-interest in the manner of serving summons and complaint, unless the Court orders otherwise. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1096.)

D. Service of a Board or Commission.

Where service is required under either the noticed motion or alternative writ procedure, if the respondent or real party-in-interest is a board or commission, service must be made upon the presiding officer, or upon the secretary, or upon a majority of the members of such board or commission.

E. Request for Stay.

Upon filing the petition, and whether proceeding by noticed motion for a peremptory writ or alternative writ, a petitioner may make an ex parte application to stay the agency's decision in an administrative mandamus case under Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5(h)(1), (if the agency is a licensed hospital or any state agency and a hearing was required by a statute to be conducted in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act (Gov. Code, §§ 11340-11529)), or under Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5(g). A stay of an agency decision in a traditional mandamus case is governed by principles for injunctive relief.

RULE 4 CRIMINAL

4.00 Direct Calendaring of Criminal Cases

The criminal departments shall consist of Judges as may be assigned by the Court's Presiding Judge. All felony and misdemeanor criminal cases shall be directly assigned to a criminal department judge for all purposes at the time of the arraignment on the complaint. Judges so assigned will preside at the trial of the matter and process the case in its totality following the arraignment. For felonies initiated by grand jury proceedings, the case shall be directly assigned to a criminal department judge at the time of the arraignment on the indictment.

The Executive Committee shall adopt assignment criteria to ensure an equitable distribution of the criminal cases. The Calendar Clerk shall be responsible for notifying the arraignment judicial officer of the judge assigned on each case according to the assignment criteria. By this rule, the Presiding Judge delegates to the judicial officer conducting arraignments the authority to make the all-purpose assignment as determined by the assignment criteria or the direction of the Presiding Judge. The judicial officer conducting arraignments shall ensure that the assigned judge is named in the appropriate space on the arraignment minute order.

The assigned judge may change in the event that the attorney appointed by the court is relieved due to conflict. In such cases, the assigned judge is delegated authority by the Presiding Judge to reassign the case for all purposes to the criminal judge handling the new appointed attorney's cases, as determined by the assignment criteria. The judge reassigning the case is responsible for ensuring that the newly assigned judge is named on the minute order.

In the event of unavailability, another criminal judge or an assigned or temporary judge may handle cases directly assigned to the unavailable judge, but the case shall remain directly assigned to the unavailable judge who shall handle all matters related to the case upon their return. - B. Any party asserting a work product or other privilege, pursuant to Penal Code Section 1054.6 or a good cause exception, must assert that privilege or exception by noticed motion, which shall be heard prior to the date of the trial readiness conference. The factual showing establishing a claim of work product, privilege, or good cause need not be set forth in the motion or accompanying points and authorities. The factual showing may be made to the court in-camera upon the moving party's request. The request to make an in-camera showing shall be made in the motion. If the Court hears the matter in-camera, the Court shall follow the procedure for establishing and sealing the record of the in-camera hearing set forth in Penal Code section 1054.7.

Misdemeanor PC 1203.4 motions will be heard with the misdemeanor probation violation calendar.

- A. All motions and responses thereto shall be filed in writing unless good cause is shown. Said motions and responses shall include the department, date and time of hearing, the theories relied upon for the granting or denying of the motion, points and authorities and any required declarations. At the time any pleading is filed, the party filing the pleading shall either 1) deliver a courtesy copy of the pleading to the courtroom where the case is assigned or 2) if the judge assigned to the case has indicated that email delivery is acceptable, email a copy to the judge. Stanislaus County Superior Court

B. Failure to File Memorandum of Points and Authorities/Failure to Address Issues

Absence of a memorandum of points and authorities shall be deemed by the Court to be a concession that the motion lacks merit. No issues other than those set forth in the memorandum of points and authorities will be considered unless the new issues were not reasonably discoverable before the motion was filed or there is other good cause shown.

Failure to deliver or email a courtesy copy of pleadings to the courtroom in which the case is assigned as required by Rule 4.04A shall not constitute grounds to deny a motion or disregard a responsive pleading, but it may serve as grounds to continue the hearing.

A memorandum of points and authorities shall not exceed fifteen (15) pages, excluding exhibits, declarations or attachments. Any party may request by written notice to the court scheduled to hear the motion, a request to exceed the fifteen (15) page limitation two (2) days before the motion is to be filed or response due. Such written request set forth good cause why the fifteen (15) page limit needs to be exceeded. (7/1/16)

4.05 Motions Under Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code

Failure to comply with any portion of this rule may constitute cause for denial of the motion.

In all cases, the motion must be written and must comply with Rule 4.04 and 1538.5 PC. The following requirements apply in addition to those specified in the aforementioned rules:

A. List of Items to be Suppressed or Returned:

The moving party shall include a complete itemized list of the specific items of property or other matters sought to be suppressed or returned. A general request to suppress or return "all evidence seized," without greater specificity, is not sufficient and shall be deemed an abandonment of the motion. Only the items listed in the motion will be considered by the court for suppression or return unless it is established the newly identified item could not reasonably be identified before the motion was filed.

B. Specification of Factual and Legal Basis for Motion:

The moving party's memorandum of points and authorities shall identify the specific legal and factual basis and cite the specific authority which will be offered to support the claim the search or seizure was defective. Failure to identify the specific legal and factual basis for the claim will be deemed a concession the search and/or seizure was lawful and will result in summary denial of the motion.

E. Stipulation to Transcript of Preliminary Examination Superior Court:

When any party is unwilling to stipulate to the transcript of the preliminary examination or grand jury hearing being received into evidence (supplemented by other testimony and argument of counsel, as needed), that fact shall be stated on the first page of the notice of motion or response. Failure to so indicate shall be deemed a stipulation of the transcript into evidence. (1/1/05)

In felony and misdemeanor cases, all motions in limine, any extraordinary or complex trial motions, and any motions requiring live testimony shall be made in writing with a supporting memorandum of points and authorities. TRAFFIC CASES

4.24 General - Appointments Are Required For Hearings

- A. When a person is cited to appear in Traffic Court an appointment is required in order to attend an arraignment hearing. The appointment must be booked on or before the “appear/respond by” date on the citation and scheduled at least five court days out. The appointment requirement also applies to a “mandatory appearance”. An appointment for arraignment may be scheduled either online, by phone, or in person with the Clerk’s Office.

Alternatively, the defendant may schedule the arraignment and trial on the same date by following the procedures outlines in Vehicle Code 40519 and posting bail. If the defendant elects to enter a not guilty plea in writing, form TR-006 (Advisement of Rights and Plea of Not Guilty in Writing) must be completed and filed with the Clerk’s Office by the “appear/respond by” date on the citation.

- B. Instead of scheduling an appointment for arraignment or trial, the defendant may pay the full bail with the Clerk’s Office on or before the “appear/respond by date” or any lawfully granted extension pursuant to Local Rule 4.27. This is considered a bail forfeiture without an entry of plea and will be reported to the DMV as a conviction.

The defendant may proceed with a bail forfeiture under this section and attend traffic school if both the type of violation and the defendant are eligible for traffic school. The full bail plus the traffic school fee must be paid on or before the “appear/respond by date” or any lawfully granted extension pursuant to Local Rule 4.27. The defendant will then have ninety (90) days from the date of the bail forfeiture to complete traffic school. If the defendant fails to timely complete traffic school, the traffic school fee is forfeited and the conviction will be reported to the DMV.

- C. Timely proofs of correction may be submitted to the Clerk’s Office. Timely means the proof of correction is submitted on or before the “appear/respond by” date or within a lawfully granted extension pursuant to Local Rule 4.27.
- D. Pursuant to Penal Code section 1428.5, all hearings including trials may be conducted in person or by remote technology. A party or attorney must complete and file a written consent to proceed by remote technology. The judicial officer has the discretion to grant or deny a remote appearance to any party, attorney, or witness at any time.

4.31 Miscellaneous Matters

A. Ability to Pay Determination Based on Financial Hardship

A defendant may submit a written request for reduction of fines based on a financial hardship by using Judicial Council Form TR-320, using the online MyCitations tool at <https://mycitations.courts.ca.gov/ntp>, or requesting an “ability to pay” hearing before a judicial officer. Financial documentation must be submitted with any request for an “ability to pay” hearing.

Pursuant to Government Code section 68645.3(a), the court hereby authorizes a designated clerk of the court to review online requests for reduction made through the MyCitations online tool. The designated clerk of the court may make the ability to pay determination if the defendant attests to being a current recipient of public benefits, including those listed in subdivision (a) of Government Code section 68632. The designated clerk of the court shall adhere to the court-established rate when making reductions in the MyCitations online tool for individuals who receive public benefits. If the designated clerk of the court denies the reduction portion of the request, the defendant may request a court hearing with a judicial officer.

B. Payment Installment Plans

The amount of bail, fines and/or fees is due to be paid in full within sixty (60) days of the plea of no contest or guilty judgment. If the defendant is not able to pay the full amount within sixty (60) days, the defendant can complete the Judicial Council TR-300 Form and the Court’s Payment Plan Enrollment Form to enter into an installment plan.

Installment plans in excess of 90 days are not available when the defendant chooses to attend traffic school. The bail plus traffic school fine is due paid in full within ninety (90) days of the guilty plea or judgment. The Clerk’s Office will not process a traffic school completion certificate until the bail and traffic school fees have been paid.

C. Community Service

Community service is available in all cases if an affirmative request is made. Community service is voluntary and may be combined with a monetary payment of fines. If community service is requested on a case also eligible for traffic school, the traffic school portion of the fine must generally be paid in currency.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

Community Service must be performed at a non-profit agency, governmental, educational, or faith-based entity that arranges for community service to be performed. The defendant will have ninety (90) days to complete the community service.

The letter must be on letterhead and include the number of hours that were completed, the date(s) when the community service was completed, what work was completed, and it must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASES

4.32 Domestic Violence Protocol

This Protocol is adopted in conformity with Penal Code 136.2, California Rule of Court 5.450, and Stanislaus County Superior Court Rule 4.31.

A. Definitions

For purposes of this protocol:

1. "Criminal court protective order" means any court order issued under California Penal Code §136.2 arising from a complaint, information, or an indictment charging a crime of domestic violence as defined in California Penal Code §13700.
2. "Court" means all divisions of the Superior Court of the County of Stanislaus.
3. "Cases involving child custody and visitation" include family (dissolutions, legal separations, nullities, Domestic Violence Prevention Act, parentage, petition for custody and support, Title IV-D child support matters where custody or visitation is an issue, and any other Family Law matters related to custody or visitation), juvenile and probate guardianship proceedings.
4. All references in this Protocol to Family Court include any division of the Superior Court, hearing matters involving child custody and visitation, including Juvenile Court and Probate Court.
5. "CLETS Restraining Orders" include personal conduct, residence exclusion, stay away, and other orders issued under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act in the Family Code or Section 213.5 of the Welfare & Institutions Code.

B. Purposes

This protocol is intended to set forth the procedures for communication and sharing regarding the issuance of Criminal Court protective orders and civil restraining orders, including those orders involving child custody and visitation, where the same restrained person and protected person are involved in both orders. It is important to permit appropriate visitation between a criminal defendant and their children pursuant to civil court orders, while simultaneously to provide for the safety of the protected person or witness by ensuring that a criminal court protective order is not violated. Since there are large numbers of cases in the criminal courts that relate to matters in the Family, Juvenile, or Probate Courts, it is vital that a process exists for communication and information sharing between the divisions of the Court dealing with the same parties and families, as well as a process for the modification of orders, to ensure consistency between various court protective orders.

C. Procedure in the Criminal Domestic Violence Court

1. Where the Restrained and Protected Persons have Children Together

When the Criminal Court issues Criminal Protective Orders protecting Victim(s), the Criminal Court shall inquire of the defendant (restrained person) whether there are any children of the relationship between the defendant and the protected person, and whether there are any Court Orders for custody/visitation of those children. If there are children, the Criminal Court shall consider whether peaceful contact should be allowed for purposes of visitation of the defendant with the children and shall give the Restrained Person Pamphlet containing informational material to the defendant concerning their rights to request a modification of the Criminal Protective Order. The Criminal Court shall also inquire as to whether there are any other protective/restraining orders involving the defendant, protected person and/or the witness. Subject to available resources, the Court shall examine the Court's local database for existing protective or restraining orders before issuing permanent orders. Court personnel shall relate the identified cases in the Court's local database to ensure future identification of these cases.

When the Protected Persons Include Minor Children of the Restrained Person

When the Criminal Court issues No Contact and/or a Stay Away Orders from the minor children of the defendant, the Criminal Court shall forward a copy of the issued criminal protective order to the Family Law, Probate or Juvenile Division for placement in the related file.

2. When the Protected Person is Present in the Criminal Court

If the protected person is present in Criminal Court when the Criminal Protective Order is issued, the Court shall provide the victim with a copy of the Criminal Protective Order, along with a Protected Person Pamphlet. If the protected person is not present in Court, the District Attorney's Office will provide the victim with a copy of the Criminal Protective Order, along with a Protected Person Pamphlet. The Protected Person Pamphlet shall advise the protected person of their rights to request restraining orders, custody and visitation orders, and child support orders through the appropriate Court.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

3. Modification of Criminal Protective Orders in Criminal Court

Because Criminal Protective Orders take precedence over Family Law Protective Orders, it is important that the process of modification be easily available.

- a. The District Attorney's Office may, at any time, place the issue before the Court at the request of a protected person or the Family, Juvenile or Probate Court.
- b. The Probation Department may place the issue before the Court on the probation review calendar at the request of a defendant, protected person, or the Family, Juvenile or Probate Court.
- c. The defendant or their counsel may place the issue before the Court on the probation review calendar.
- d. An Application for Modification of Criminal Protective Order allows a defendant, protected person, another court or any other appropriate agency (see (f)) to request the Criminal Court to place the case on calendar to consider a request to modify the protective order. This form will be available in the Family Law, Probate, Juvenile and Criminal Court Clerk's Office, the Family Law Facilitator's Office, and any other appropriate agencies.
- e. Upon a proper request pursuant to this protocol, the appropriate Criminal Court may place the matter on calendar on its own motion.

3. If time is of the essence regarding a contested matter, and notice requirements were not met, the parties shall be prepared to explain good cause for absence of notice.

5. Absence of a memorandum of points and authorities shall be deemed by the Court to be a concession that the motion lacks merit. No issues other than those set forth in the memorandum of points and authorities will be considered unless they were not reasonably discoverable before the motion was filed, or there is other good cause shown.
6. Failure to deliver or email a courtesy copy of pleadings to the courtroom in which the case is assigned shall not constitute grounds to deny a motion or disregard a responsive pleading, but it may serve as grounds to continue the hearing.
7. A memorandum of points and authorities shall not exceed fifteen (15) pages, excluding exhibits, declarations or attachments. Any party may submit a written request to exceed the fifteen (15) page limitation two (2) days before the motion is to be filed or response due. Stanislaus County Superior Court

6.10 Selection and Disqualification of Appellate Panel Judges

The Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court appoints judges of the Superior Court to preside over matters within the jurisdiction of the Appellate Division of the Superior Court. (Code Civ. Proc., § 77; Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 10.1100.)

The Presiding Judge of the Appellate Division selects the Appellate Division judges to serve on a three-judge Appellate Panel to hear and decide appeals according to the judges' availability and the monthly oral argument sessions of the Appellate Division. (Ibid.)

When cases are set for Oral Argument, the three judges assigned to that session's Appellate Panel determine individually whether there is a conflict that requires their recusal and, if so, then another judge of the Appellate Division is selected to replace that judge to ensure a full, three-judge Appellate Panel. A judge has a duty to decide any proceeding in which he or she is not disqualified. (Code Civ. Proc., § 170.)

The Legislature has determined that peremptory challenges for a judge appointed to the Appellate Division are prohibited. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 170.6, 170.7.) Likewise, the statutory disqualification procedures pertaining to for cause challenges do not apply to appellate judges; therefore, the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 170.3 do not govern challenges to a judge of the Appellate Division by a party or counsel. (Kaufman v. Court of Appeal (1982) 31 Cal.3d 933, 937; cf., Housing Authority of Monterey County v. Jones (2005) 130 Cal.App.4th 1029, 1040; 2 Witkin, Cal. Proc. 6th Courts § 139 (2023).)

Accordingly, any challenge for cause or other request for disqualification of a judge of the Appellate Division by a party or counsel must be served and filed according to the California Rules of Court governing motions in the Appellate Division and should be made as soon as the basis for challenge or disqualification is known to the party or counsel, but no later than fifteen (15) days before the date initially set for Oral Argument, unless good cause is shown for the late filing in the moving papers. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 8.808.)

The decision on a motion to disqualify a judge of the Appellate Division assigned to an Appellate Panel shall be determined by the Presiding Judge, the Presiding Judge's designee(s), or a judge or judges of the Appellate Division, excluding the challenged judge. The decision on a motion to disqualify is not an appealable order and may be reviewed only by a timely writ of mandate to the appropriate court of review or by transfer as provided in Division 6 of Title 8 of the California Rules of Court. (7/1/24.)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

5. Conservatorships and Guardianships (both relative and non-relative) arising from Division 4 of the Probate Code. (7/1/20)

7.02 Direct Calendaring of Family Law Cases

- A. Application: This rule applies to proceedings for dissolution of marriage, legal separation of the parties, nullity of marriage, dissolution of domestic partnerships, proceedings to establish a parent and child relationship, requests for domestic violence prevention orders, petitions for child custody and visitation, and proceedings for summary dissolution and guardianships. (7/1/20)
- B. Judicial assignment: When a family law case described in paragraph A is filed or received and filed as a transfer from another county, the Court shall assign the case to a judicial officer for all purposes including trial, except or otherwise as provided or required by law. At the time of the initial filing or initial receipt of the file, the Clerk's Office shall affix to the face of the petition and to the notice of case management conference, the following notice: (7/1/20)

"THIS CASE HAS BEEN ASSIGNED TO JUDGE _____, DEPARTMENT _____ FOR ALL PURPOSES INCLUDING TRIAL"

- C. Unavailability of judge: In the event of unavailability, another judicial officer or an assigned or temporary judge may handle cases directly assigned to the unavailable judge, but the case shall remain directly assigned to the unavailable judge for all purposes, including trial, who shall continue to preside over the case upon his or her return, except where the case is reassigned by the Presiding Judge or designee to a different judicial officer for all purposes, including trial. (7/1/20)
- D. Related cases: After a case is assigned to a particular judge for all purposes, all related not previously assigned cases shall be assigned to the same judge. A related case is one involving the same minor child or children, the same or substantially similar parties, and that raises common questions of law or facts. Whenever possible, all related cases shall be assigned to the same judicial officer in accordance with the direct calendaring policy. Upon discovery at any time of a new or pending related case that has not been so assigned, the Court may reassign the new or pending case to the same judicial officer previously assigned to the prior related case. All parties and counsel of record must file a "Notice of Related Case" on the appropriate Judicial Council form in accord with the Rules of Court and Code of Civil Procedure. Failure to do so in a timely manner after discovery or knowledge of a related case not assigned to the same judicial officer may result, after notice and a hearing, in the imposition of monetary sanctions. (7/1/20, 7/1/24)

- E. Notification by petitioner: Petitioners shall notify all respondents of the direct assignment when so notified by the Court and a party that joins another party to the action shall notify the joined party of the direct assignment. Petitioners, or parties joining another party to the action, shall file a proof of service of their notification of the direct assignment within five (5) days after the notice is served. (7/1/20)
- F. Identification of judge on filings: In all family law cases assigned to a judge for all purposes, the face page of each filed document, under the case number, shall state the name and department of the judge assigned for all purposes. (7/1/20)
- G. Peremptory challenges: In the Family Law Department, a single judge is assigned to and regularly presides in a single department. Consequently, the time limits for peremptory challenges are governed by Code of Civil Procedure section 170.6, subdivision (a)(2), and for petitioners shall be within fifteen (15) days after notice of the assignment and, for respondents, within fifteen (15) days after filing the first pleading or appearance. (7/1/20)

7.03 Time for Service of Petition and Response

- A. Application: These rules apply to the service of pleadings in proceedings for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, legal separation of the parties, dissolution of domestic partnerships, and proceedings to establish parent and child relationship pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act, commencing with Family Code section 7600. Specifically excluded from these rules are requests for restraining orders pursuant to the Domestic Violence Prevention Act commencing with Family Code section 6200, summary dissolutions, and actions for exclusive custody pursuant to Family Code section 3120. (7/1/20)
- B. Service of petition: The petition must be served on the respondent and proof of service on the respondent must be filed with the court within sixty (60) days after the filing of the petition. (7/1/20)
- C. Timing of responsive pleadings: The parties may stipulate, without leave of Court, to one fifteen (15) day extension beyond the thirty (30) day time period prescribed for the response after service of the initial petition. The Court must approve any other extensions of time to respond. (7/1/20)
- D. Modification of timing and application for order for extending time: The Court, on its own motion or on the application of a party, may extend or otherwise modify the times provided in subdivisions B and C. An application for a court order extending the time to serve a pleading must be filed before the time for service has elapsed. The application must be accompanied by a declaration showing why service has not been affected, documenting the efforts that have been made to complete service, and specifying the date by which service is proposed to be completed. (7/1/20, 7/1/24)

- E. Failure to serve: Unless the Court has granted an order extending the time to serve a petition, the failure to serve and file pleadings as required under this rule may result in an Order to Show Cause being issued as to why sanctions shall not be imposed. (7/1/20)
- F. Request for entry of default: If a responsive pleading is not served within the time limits specified by law and no extension of time has been granted, the petitioner within 60 days after the time for service has elapsed must file a request for the entry of default. Failure to do so may result in an Order to Show Cause being issued as to why sanctions shall not be imposed. Unless properly excused, a complete and current Income and Expense Declaration or a Financial Statement (Simplified), and a complete and current Property Declaration shall be attached to the Request to Enter Default. The failure to include the disclosure documents, if required, shall be deemed a sufficient basis to set aside the entry of default upon timely request. (7/1/20)
- G. Default judgment: When default is entered, the party who requested the entry of default must submit a default judgment against the defaulting party within 60 days after entry of default, unless the Court has granted an extension of time. Failure to diligently obtain entry of judgment against a defaulting party or to request an extension of time to apply for a default judgment may result in an Order to Show Cause being issued as to why sanctions shall not be imposed. (7/1/20)

7.04 Case Management Conference

In proceedings for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, legal separation of the parties, dissolution of domestic partnerships, proceedings to establish parent and child relationship, the Court will set each case for a case management conference approximately one hundred fifty (150) days after the date of filing. Petitioner shall serve the notice of the case management conference and a blank case management conference statement on the respondent. (7/1/20, 1/1/22)

A. Subjects to be considered at the case management conference.

At the case management conference, the parties must address, if applicable, and the Court may take appropriate action with respect to the following:

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Whether any additional parties may be joined in the proceeding;
3. Whether there are any other matters (e.g. out of state custody orders) that may affect the court's jurisdiction or processing the case;
4. Whether the parties have agreements on issues such as child custody, child support, spousal support, or division of property;
5. Whether discovery has been completed and, if not, by when it will be completed;
6. Whether certain issues (e.g. marital status, date of separation, or date of valuation) should be bifurcated;
7. Whether the case is entitled to any statutory preference, and if so, the statute granting the preference;
8. If the trial date has not been previously set, the date by which the case will be ready for trial and the available trial dates;

10. The nature of the disputed issues; and
11. Any other matters that should be considered by the court or addressed in its case management order. (7/1/20)

B. Meet and confer requirement.

Unless the Court orders another time period, no later than thirty (30) days before the initial case management conference, the parties must meet and confer, unless there exists a current restraining order prohibiting personal contact with the other party and both parties are self-represented, in person or by telephone, to consider each of the issues identified in subdivision A, and, in addition, to consider the following:

1. Identifying and, if possible, informally resolving any anticipated motions;

6. Other relevant matters. (7/1/20)

C. Case Management Statement. No later than fifteen (15) calendar days before the initial case management conference date, each party must file an initial case management statement with the Clerk of the Court.

The parties must use the Mandatory Case Management Statement, Local Form FL-005, which is available on the Court's website under the "Forms" link and is also available at the Family Law Court Clerk's Office. All applicable items on the form must be completed. In lieu of each party filing a separate case management statement, any two or more parties may file a joint statement. In summary dissolution proceedings, the parties will not be required to file Case Management Conference Statements. However, the parties to a summary dissolution shall be prepared to explain to the Court why they have not submitted to the Court an application for judgment. (7/1/20)

D. Case management order.

The Court will issue a case management order in each case. The order will set a schedule for subsequent proceedings and otherwise provide for the management of the case. (7/1/20, 1/1/22)

E. Order to Show Cause.

The Court may issue an Order to Show Cause (OSC) to any party or attorney violating any applicable law, state rule of court, these local rules, or a lawful court order. (1/1/21)

1. The OSC shall specify the date and time of the hearing and give notice to the party or attorney as to the violation(s) and the duty to personally appear before the Court as specified.
2. Responsive papers to the Order to Show Cause must be filed and served no later than five (5) court days before the hearing.
3. After the hearing, the Court may in its discretion do one or more of the following:

Stanislaus County Superior Court

impose monetary sanctions, dismiss the petition with or without prejudice, strike the petition and deem the response to be the operative petition, strike the response and order entry of default, impose a stay, or hold order on the action, or make any other order as required. (1/1/21, 7/1/24)

7.05 Formatting of Papers

- A. Application: Rules 7.05-7.15 apply to the court's short-cause and/or law and motion calendar. (7/1/20)
- B. Time of hearings: Unless otherwise set by the Court, all family law restraining orders and mediation matters dealing with custody and visitation issues will be at 8:30 a.m., with economic matters at 9:00 a.m., on a date set by the Clerk. Economic and miscellaneous issues will be heard at 9:00 a.m. Motions and requests for orders are to reflect these times for appearance. (7/1/20)
- C. Multiple issues require separate hearings: When a Request for Order raises multiple issues, (i.e. custody and/or visitation and economic issues, etc.), upon the filing of the moving papers two separate hearing dates will be assigned. The first hearing will address the custody/visitation issues and the second hearing will address the economic or miscellaneous issues. Both dates will appear on the face of the moving document, and a filing fee will be required for each of the hearing dates. (7/1/20)
- D. Mandatory Forms: All order requests from the family law court must be made on a Request for Order (FL-300) or other mandatory Judicial Council form, as required by the nature of the request. (7/1/20, 1/1/21)
- E. Duty to Notify Court of Other Proceedings. Any petition, application, motion or order request, including any response thereto, involving an issue of child custody, visitation, child support or domestic violence shall contain a prominent statement in writing notifying the Court and all parties of: (1/1/21)
 - 1. Any jurisdictional action pending or any present jurisdiction exercise by the Juvenile Court, either independently or pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 304, the Superior Court, or other Court, involving the child(ren) or the parties concerned in the motion, petition or Request for Order. Such information shall include the name and location of the Court, the file number therein, the statutory basis for said action and a copy of the most recent order made in the action. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Any prior applications for relief similar to that requested in the current moving paper of which said moving party or counsel have knowledge. (7/1/20)
3. As noted in Rule 7.02D, failure to notify the court of a related case in a timely manner after discovery or knowledge of a related case not assigned to the same judicial officer may result, after notice and a hearing, in the imposition of monetary sanctions. (7/1/20)

F. Other hearing dates: All documents filed in cases with pending hearings must reflect the next upcoming hearing date on the face of the document, near the title. For all documents that already reflect a specific hearing date, this rule does not apply. (7/1/20)

G. Income and Expense Declaration and Supporting paperwork

1. Mandatory filing: Except upon good cause shown, no case in which monetary relief of any kind is requested, including any request for child support, spousal support or family support, or attorney's fees and/or costs, shall be heard unless a current Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) in the form prescribed by Rule 5.260 of the California Rules of Court has been completed and filed by the moving party. A copy of that declaration must be served with the moving or responding papers. Good cause includes, without limitation, situations in which the custodial parent (obligee) is receiving a full TANF/CalWorks grant. Parties are expected to completely disclose all relevant financial information to each other and the Court whenever a financial matter is at issue. If a party is receiving public assistance benefits, that fact shall be disclosed in the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150). In the event the moving party fails to comply, the matter may be dropped from the calendar. After notice and a hearing, the Court may impose sanctions if delay results from failure of any party to comply with these requirements. (7/1/20)
2. Definition of "current": Except as may be defined elsewhere herein, "current" means executed within three (3) months of the date matter is to be heard, or when the filed declaration requires no modification to correctly state the party's income and expense condition as of the date the matter is to be heard. (7/1/20)
3. Examination regarding income and expense declaration: The Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) will be considered as received in evidence at the hearing subject to amendment and/or cross-examination in the Court's discretion. Examination on matters covered by the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) will be heard only under exceptional circumstances within the Court's discretion and normally will be limited to testimony

regarding unusual items not adequately explained in the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150). (7/1/20)

4. Completeness of Income and Expense Declaration: The Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) is not fully complete unless all blanks on the form are "answered." Notations such as "unk." for unknown, "est." for estimate, "n/a" for not applicable and "none" should be used to avoid leaving any item blank. If current facts are temporary, both the actual current facts and the estimated prospective facts may be shown if properly identified. Information concerning the party's finances shall be stated, and if not exactly known, reasonably estimated, on each declaration. In addition, an Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) is not fully complete unless it contains the following: (7/1/20)

- a. Schedules wherever required (including all business income, commission income, rental income, interest income, etc.). These schedules shall completely set forth the source of income, total gross income, an itemization of all deductions, and the net income after deductions. Business expense schedules shall identify depreciation and any other non-cash expenses. (7/1/20)
- b. A fully completed section on attorney's fees, including the hourly rate, if any, even if attorney's fees have not been requested. (7/1/20)
- c. A schedule of bonuses, if any, setting forth the amount and date of the most recent bonus, the date on which the next bonus is expected to be received, and the amount of the next bonus (if known). (7/1/20, 7/1/24)
- d. A statement of overtime and a description of the frequency of receipt. (7/1/20)
- e. Deductions from income based on withholding allowances or deductions from income based on dependency actions that reflect actual tax liability. (7/1/20)

5. Requirement of an Additional Factual Declaration: An additional factual declaration shall be provided where the following circumstances are applicable: (7/1/20)

- a. If a party is unemployed, the declaration should describe previous employment, gross and net income derived there from, reasons for termination, and should state current efforts to seek employment. (7/1/20)
- b. If there are other income-producing household members, including a new spouse or nonmarital partner, the declaration shall state the relationship to the party, their

gross and net income, their contributions to household expenses, and any financial arrangements between the party and those persons. (7/1/20)

6. Requirement of Exchange of Financial Documents Each party shall exchange, at least five (5) days prior to any hearing involving financial matters, wage stubs or other documents evidencing income for the preceding three (3) months. Additionally, each party shall provide the other a copy of the party's most recent federal income tax return. If the hearing is scheduled between February 1 and the date the parties' tax return is filed, copies of all W-2 forms, 1099 forms, and other forms reflecting receipt of income during the previous year shall be exchanged. Where available, a self-employed party shall provide his/her most recent business profit and loss, or financial statement. (7/1/20, 7/1/24)

(Rule 7.06 [7/1/20] amended July 1, 2024)

7.07 Informal Discovery Conferences (IDC):

[Authority: Fam.Code, §§ 2450, 2451; Cal.Rules of Ct., rule 5.83]

- A. Court Motion: The Court may order an IDC when a discovery motion is filed, or otherwise upon reasonable notice to the parties with opportunity to respond, as part of a Family Centered Case Resolution Order. The Order shall be prepared and served on Judicial Council form FL-174, by Minute Order, or else by Findings and Order After Hearing, in the Court's discretion. (7/1/20, 7/1/23)
- B. Party Motion: Parties requesting an IDC shall file a request for case management conference and specify that an IDC is desired as part of a Family Centered Case Resolution Order. Any other party may object to the IDC at the case management conference and be heard as to the objection without the need for formal written objection. If the parties agree, they may submit a stipulation and order for an IDC. In either case, Judicial Council form FL-174 shall be completed and submitted to the Court for review and signature, specifying "IDC pursuant to Local Rules, rule 7.07(B)," in box No. 9 "Other," including the IDC date, time and department, along with any other orders regarding discovery agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court. The signed order must then be filed and served on all parties by the party requesting the IDC or, if by stipulation, by either party as agreed. (7/1/20, 7/1/23, 7/1/24)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- C. IDC Procedure: The IDC shall be scheduled at or after 1:30 p.m., in order to utilize available conference rooms. Represented parties shall appear by counsel only, though clients must be available, either in person or by telephone, for the duration of the IDC. Unrepresented parties shall appear in person. Failure to appear, or to participate in good faith, may result in monetary or other sanctions if the Court schedules a noticed hearing on those issues. The IDC shall be conducted as the Court determines, including the appointment of a judge pro tem to supervise the conference. (7/1/20, 7/1/23)

7.08 Particular kinds of motions or requests for order

- A. Appointment of Elisors: Where one of the parties will not or cannot execute a document/documents necessary to carry out a court order, the clerk of the court, or their authorized representative or designee, may be appointed as an elisor to sign the document(s).

A party must request the appointment of an elisor using a Request for Order form (FL-300) supported by facts establishing the necessity for the appointment of the elisor. The moving party must also submit a proposed order, which designates "The Clerk of the Court or Clerk's Designee" as the elisor. The proposed order must not set forth a specific court employee by name.

The proposed order shall indicate for whom the elisor is being appointed and in what capacity the elisor is to sign the document. The proposed order must expressly identify the document(s) the elisor must sign and a copy of the document(s) must be attached to the proposed order. The original document(s), when presented for signature by the elisor, must match the copy of the document(s) attached to the order. If the elisor's signature must be notarized, the moving party must arrange for a notary public to be present when the elisor signs the document(s).

B. Joinder for Grandparent or Non-Parent Visitation.

- 1. Pending Custody Proceedings: During the pendency of the family law proceedings, a grandparent may file a motion for joinder to seek grandparent visitation. Family Code section 3103 governs such requests. The motion for joinder will be subject to the Court's Tentative Ruling process. Since joinder is mandatory in matters involving visitation pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.24, the standard tentative ruling will be to grant joinder, to direct the grandparent to file the Request for Order, and to have the matter set for hearing.
- 2. Post-Judgment Custody Proceedings: After judgment or a final determination of child custody and visitation, joinder motions for grandparent visitation are governed by Family Code section 3104. In these cases, the Court will not order the joinder of the grandparent until the Court decides whether the Court should grant visitation. (See, i.e., Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.24(e)(1)(B).) Therefore, the Notice of Motion and Declaration of Joinder and Request for Order shall be filed simultaneously and shall be set for the same hearing date. If there is no pending proceeding, an independent petition must be filed as per 3104.

3. Other Visitation Petitions: A non-grandparent party seeking visitation with a minor child after the death of a parent under Family Code section 3102 should file a separate petition for visitation, unless otherwise instructed by the court.

C. Modification of Custody/Visitation Arrangements

1. All Request for Orders to Modify Child Custody and/or Visitation shall include on the face thereof the name of the Mediator if the matter has been previously mediated, either in the same or a different file or if the same parties together have been involved in mediation with other children.
2. Applications to modify existing custody/visitation arrangements or orders filed within three (3) months of the issuance of an order to establish or modify support by the opposing party will be viewed with disfavor. Such modifications will be granted only:
 - a) To bring the existing order in conformity with the actual current practice of the parties, or
 - b) Upon a strong showing such modification is necessary to protect the best interest of the child(ren). Attorney fees shall be awarded to the non-moving party unless the Court finds substantial justification for the application.

D. Mediation and Family Court Services Evaluation of custody and visitation requests

1. Mediation in all cases: All cases involving contested issues of custody and/or visitation shall be mediated, and the court will indicate the need for mediation on the face of any request for order that is filed. (Fam. Code, § 3170, subd. (a).) In represented cases, no attorney may schedule or request more than two (2) mediations in which his or her presence will be necessary on the same day. Violations may result in a continuance of the mediation, vacating the request for order and/or sanctions, after notice and opportunity to be heard, at the Court's discretion.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Orientation program: The Court has an on-line mediation orientation program offered in both English and Spanish. Parties who require assistance with other languages are to notify the court, which will try to secure translation assistance. All parties who are scheduled for mediation, including parties in domestic violence cases, are required to complete the on-line Mediation Orientation Program before the scheduled custody/visitation hearing. The online orientation has information that is important. Topics include information on the effects of divorce upon children, child sharing, communication, confidentiality, and parenting plans. The program is accessible from the Court's official website at <https://www.stanislaus.courts.ca.gov/>. A party who has completed the on-line program within 18 months before the current scheduled hearing will be excused from retaking the program. The Court may allow mediation where only one party has taken the program if to deny mediation would work a disservice or hardship to the party who has taken the program, or the child(ren) involved. On a showing of good cause and in the best interest of the children, the Court may allow mediation where neither party has taken the program. The Mediator may request the Court to postpone mediation where one or both have not taken the program if after commencing mediation, the Mediator concludes that a party or parties should take the program before participating in mediation. Where a party fails to comply with the Court's order to take the mediation orientation program, the Court may impose a monetary sanction against that party after notice and a hearing.
3. Child sharing plan: Whenever there is an issue regarding child sharing, every moving and responding pleading should set forth a detailed proposed child sharing plan, including all orders the party would like the Court to issue.
4. Confidentiality: Mediation and Family Court Services Evaluations are not confidential, except as provided by law. If no agreement is reached, the mediator or evaluator, after a mediation session or evaluation, shall be called upon to make a recommendation to the Court regarding a resolution of the child sharing issues.
5. Complaints: All complaints regarding mediation or a mediator, Family Court Services Evaluation or a Family Court Services Evaluator, including a request to change a mediator or evaluator, shall be directed in writing to the Family Court Services supervisor or designee, who shall take appropriate action upon the request. Any party dissatisfied with the action taken may bring a formal motion to the Court. This action may include appointing a co-mediator or replacing the mediator or evaluator. No peremptory challenge is allowed against a mediator or evaluator.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

6. Rules pursuant to California Rules of Court rule 5.220: In compliance with California Rules of Court, Rule 5.220, the following Local Rules of Court are adopted with respect to court-ordered child custody evaluations:
- a) No peremptory challenge to an evaluator is allowed.
 - b) A standard FCS custody evaluation shall be limited to three (3) hours in total, subject to the mediator's sole discretion to allow more time if deemed appropriate.
 - c) The mediator may request further information or documents upon completion of the standard evaluation, but the parties are not to submit any supplemental information or documents not requested by the mediator unless (a) permission from the mediator is first sought and obtained, and (b) the other party or parties are permitted to examine the documents and information and permitted to offer any responsive information or documents. Whether such additional information or documents will be accepted and considered by the mediator shall rest in the mediator's sole discretion.
 - d) As a rule, the following categories of documents and information will typically be of assistance to the mediator if relevant to the custody issues in dispute:
 - School records
 - Medical records
 - Counseling records
 - Photographs and/or videos depicting interactions with the minor(s) at issue or present health, demeanor and appearance of the minor(s).
 - e) As a rule, the following categories of documents and information will typically not be of assistance to the mediator and will not be considered unless exceptional circumstances exist warranting consideration, as determined in the mediator's sole discretion:
 - Text or SMS messages
 - Social Media posts or comments
 - Screen captures re computer, smart-phones or tablets
 - Voice mails or recorded calls
 - f) Where any documents or other information are determined to be relevant and worthy of consideration, no party shall submit more than ten (10)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

pages combined of the preceding categories of documents or information for use in a standard FCS evaluation.

- g) The evaluator has discretion to discuss and disclose the lack of confidentiality with the child.
 - h) If an evaluator sees the child with one parent/person seeking custody or visitation, the evaluator also shall see the child with the other parent/person seeking custody or visitation unless the other parent/person seeking custody or visitation refuses/fails to see the evaluator with the child or the evaluator feels it is not in the best interest of the child(ren) to be in the presence of the other parent.
 - i) The evaluator has the discretion to interview siblings separately or together or both.
 - j) The evaluator is prohibited from making an evaluation based only on an interview with one parent/person seeking custody or visitation unless the other parent/person seeking custody or visitation refuses/fails to be interviewed by the evaluator.
 - k) The grievance procedure in place for evaluators has been described in paragraph 5, above.
 - l) Evaluators may petition to withdraw from a case as described in California Rules of Court rule 5.220(d)(1)(A)(iii).
 - m) All appointed persons who evaluate or investigate child custody matters are required to complete domestic violence training as set forth in California Rules of Court 5.225 and 5.230 and such person shall provide to the Court proof of required domestic violence training.
 - n) Any Court ordered child custody evaluation shall be done in compliance with the guidelines set forth in California Rules of Court 5.220.
7. Communication with mediator or evaluator: The Mediator/Evaluator shall be allowed to have ex parte communication only during the evaluation process. Once a custody order has been issued, parties and counsel will not be permitted to communicate ex parte with the counselors to seek any change or modification. The Mediator/Evaluator shall accept from the parties all information regarding the best interest of the child(ren) and the Mediator/Evaluator shall then determine if revealing any of that information

- would place the child(ren) at emotional or physical risk. The Mediator/Evaluator shall have discretion about revealing that information to the other party based on his/her determination. The Mediator/Evaluator shall maintain all information received during an evaluation in the event that the Court orders that material produced. Due to the volume of cases, and the necessity of fairly and efficiently allocating the limited availability of the Mediator/Evaluator's time to provide the greatest access to the largest number of parties, the Mediator/Evaluator, in his or her sole and exclusive discretion, shall consider no more than ten (10) pages of written or pictorial documents. If more than this is desired by the parties, then a full Family Court Services evaluation may be requested or required, as determined by the Court, and the matter continued for this purpose.
8. Conduct of mediation: On the day of the hearing, Mediation clients are given an individual intake sheet for a differential assessment of domestic violence. Clients are given the option of separate sessions with the Mediator when either party alleges domestic violence, and parties have the right to have a support person in the Mediation session. A support person may be excluded if they disrupt the process of Mediation. The Mediator shall confer separately and privately with each party who does not report domestic violence to determine whether joint or separate sessions are appropriate.
 9. Prohibition on the issuance of non-CLETS restraining orders: Only CLETS restraining orders are to be issued pursuant to the Family Code commencing with section 6200. During mediation, the mediator will not recommend the issuance of a non-CLETS restraining order. Further, the Court will not approve a stipulation by the parties to the issuance of a non-CLETS restraining order. This rule will not limit a party's right to seek other types of restraining orders as provided by statute, such as property restraints. Likewise, this rule does not in any manner affect the automatic restraining orders that apply in family law cases.
 10. Custody orders after hearing: The written custody order will be prepared and delivered to the parties and counsel on the same morning following the mediation session. Parties and counsel shall remain in the courtroom until the order has been prepared so they may review and approve as to form and content. If a party or counsel leaves the courtroom without reviewing the order any subsequent requests to amend or correct an order will have to be made by a formal motion or by written stipulation of the parties. If an agreement is reached and approved by the Court, or if no agreement and no Long Cause hearing was requested on the Court's order, said order is permanent and any change in custody shall be only by way of written pleading identifying a material change in circumstance.

11. Request for Copies of Therapeutic Treatment Records: To balance the rights of the parties to full and fair access to documentary evidence necessary to prosecute or defend a custody proceeding with the confidential nature of court-ordered therapeutic treatment and the therapeutic professional-patient relationship, any party or that party's attorney may obtain copies of court-ordered therapeutic treatment records and notes. The party or the party's attorney shall first complete and sign Local Form FL022 "Release of Therapeutic Treatment Notes" and shall agree to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of the disclosed records unless and until offered and admitted in a custody proceeding where the records have not been sealed by court order and/or the courtroom has not been closed to the public by court order. Local Form FL022 is adopted for mandatory use and is intended to implement and supplement this local rule.

E. Child and Spousal Support

Introduction: This rule applies to requests for child and/or spousal support but not to contractually based claims for support of an immigrant, which are governed by federal law. Because the Family Court is a division of limited jurisdiction, contractual claims for support under federal law should be filed in the Civil Division. If a party files such a claim in the Family Law Division, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 402 the court may transfer the case on its own motion to the Civil Division.

1. Child Support: In determining the amounts to be paid for temporary and permanent child support, the Court will be consistent with the DissoMaster (tm) program or other computer support program authorized by the Judicial Council. The support schedules allocate "net income" of the parties to meet the needs of all the parties, recognizing that, in most cases, there is not sufficient income to sustain either party in the same standard of living that existed prior to separation.
 - a) Confidential Information Sheet: Upon filing of any petition or response in any family law case type, the filing party shall file a confidential information sheet entitled "Confidential Declaration of Parties in Family Law Case" to help the Court identify the parties in the case. The confidential information sheet shall be placed in a confidential envelope maintained within the Court's case file and shall not be made available to any parties other than the Court absent a court order. The confidential information sheet form is available on the Court's website under the "Forms" link and is available at the Family Law Court Clerk's Office.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- b) Requests for order and motions regarding child support: In all matters where child support is at issue, a supporting declaration shall set forth the amount of support calculated pursuant to Family Code sections 4070-4073. If it is contended that the guideline amount is inappropriate, a declaration shall set forth the calculation of the amount alleged to be proper, and the reasons therefore.
- c) Proceedings Involving Recipients of Public Assistance Benefits: Notwithstanding any other rule, if a party or the minor child(ren) are receiving public assistance benefits:
 - (1) Disclosure on Income and Expense Declaration: That fact shall be disclosed on the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150); and
 - (2) Service on DCSS: Proof of service of a notice of hearing and all moving papers upon the Department of Child Support Services at least ten (10) Court days prior to the hearing shall be filed; and
 - (3) Orders: All orders submitted to the Court shall comply with Family Code sections 4200-4203.
- d) Calendar Settings for Mediation and Economic Issues: The Court understands that in many cases the issues of custody/visitation and economic issues go hand in hand. However, the time it takes for mediation precludes the handling of both issues on the same calendar. In all matters which involve both issues the Court now requires that two calendar dates be received at the time papers are filed. The initial date will be for mediation with a second date for economic issues.
- e) Child Support Case Registry form: Any document setting forth a stipulation between the parents regarding child support must be accompanied by Child Support Case Registry forms (FL-191) completed by each parent.
- f) Modifications: Absent a significant change of circumstances, modification of child support orders should not be filed with the Court more than one time per year. A stipulation to modify child support shall be returned unprocessed unless accompanied by a completed Child Support Case Registry form (FL-191).

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- g) Timeshare: The Court discourages timeshare calculations based on hours and minutes. Absent good cause, the Court will generally calculate timeshare by looking at the days and half-days each parent has custody of the child(ren).
 - h) Adoption allowance: In cases where the parties receive an adoption allowance for the minor child/children, these benefits will not be considered income to the parents. As a rule, the benefits will be allocated between the parents in accordance with their percentage of custodial time pursuant to the most recent custody order. The Court will calculate guideline child support excluding the adoption allowance. In most cases, the custodial parent will receive the entire adoption allowance and the non-custodial parent will receive an offset equal to that parent's proportionate share of the allowance against his/her child support obligation.
 - i) Earned Income of a Minor Child: Earned income of a minor child below $300 per month shall be deemed the income of the minor child. Earned income of a minor child in excess of $300 per month shall be allocated as part of the income to the custodial parent of said minor child. Benefits received by the minor child through the Supplemental Security Income Program (SSI) shall not be considered income for the determination of child support.
2. Spousal Support: Pursuant to Family Code section 4336, there is a presumption that a marriage of 10 years or more is a long-term marriage. The Court's policy is to reserve jurisdiction over spousal support in all long-term marriages. Waivers of spousal support are viewed with disfavor and will only be approved where the record clearly establishes that the supported party will be able to adequately meet his or her financial needs at the time selected for termination of jurisdiction. If the record of financial support is not clear, spousal support in a long-term marriage must be reserved.
- a) Temporary spousal support: Temporary spousal support shall be awarded consistent with the DissoMaster (tm) program or other computer support program authorized by the Judicial Council unless rebutted by admissible evidence. The Court will follow the Alameda County Guideline in determining temporary spousal support. The DissoMaster can be defaulted to the Alameda option for attorneys to refer to in counseling their clients. Under special circumstances as determined by the Court, the Court has the discretion to use either the Santa Clara or Marin/Kings option. The Court notes that the different amounts of spousal support that result from each option only occur when there is both child and spousal support to be awarded. When only spousal support is at issue, all options result in the same amount.

- b) Permanent spousal support: Permanent spousal support shall be awarded pursuant to Family Code section 4320, 4330-4337, 4339, 3651, 3653, 3654 and relevant case law.
3. Preparation and Submission of Order for Signature by Court: All orders on support matters that are signed in court and presented to parties for filing must be filed with the Clerk's Office within one (1) business day of the hearing. If an order is not signed in court, the moving party shall prepare a written order following any hearing or trial. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and except in summary dissolution cases, California Rules of Court, rule 5.125, governs submission of proposed orders after hearing or trial. However, this court will generally allow 15 days for submission of an order that does not require approval by opposing counsel and 30 days for submission of an order that does require such approval. This court will hold all non-approved orders for a period of five (5) days, after which, regardless of any objection received, the Court will either sign the proposed order, order the preparing party to modify the order as the Court shall direct or hold a hearing to determine the appropriate language. After an order has been signed by the judge and filed, the party preparing the order shall mail two (2) filed marked copies to opposing counsel or one (1) copy to a party appearing in Pro Per and one (1) copy to the Department of Child Support Services office if a party or the child(ren) are on public assistance, and the order relates to child support, spousal support, or child custody. In the event the Judge who heard the hearing or trial is unavailable for longer than two (2) weeks from submission of the order or judgment, the order or judgment shall be signed by the family law presiding judge.
4. Proposed support Judgments: Any proposed judgment submitted to the Court regarding support obligations or arrearages shall use Judicial Council form FL-630. In the event the proposed judgment sets forth an arrearage, the party submitting the form shall attach a supporting declaration setting forth the factual basis for the arrearage and how the arrearage has been calculated. Such declaration should contain, at a minimum, the months in which support was not received and the amount of support owing for each such month. When a proposed judgment is submitted by an institutional party, such as the Department of Child Support Services or other state of county agency, the supporting declaration shall be executed by an individual who can personally attest to the business record showing the arrears and interest owed.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

5. Writs of Execution concerning support judgments: Any writ of execution submitted to the Court in connection with an outstanding support obligation or arrearage shall use Judicial Council form EJ-130. The Clerk of Court shall verify the amount of the judgment set forth in item no. 11 before any writ is issued. Any writ of execution submitted to the Court shall contain a supporting affidavit setting forth the way the amount set forth in item no. 11 has been calculated. Such affidavits shall be executed by an individual who can personally attest to the information contained therein and shall, at a minimum, set forth the initial amount of the judgment, the date and amount of any payments made toward the judgment and accrued interest.

(Rule 7.08 [7/1/17, 7/1/24] amended July 1, 2025)

7.09 Service of Papers:

- A. Time for service: Absent an order shortening time, Requests for Orders, Oppositions, Responsive Declarations and all supporting papers must be filed and served pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 1005, 1011 and 1013 and applicable Rules of Court. (7/1/20)
- B. Failure to Serve: If service is not completed by the date specified by law or in the Request for Order/Notice of Motion and proof of service is not timely filed with the Court, the matter will remain on the Court's calendar to be dropped in open Court unless both parties appear or the moving party appears with proper proof of service. The tentative ruling may, in the Court's discretion, reflect that the Request for Order/Notice of Motion is tentatively denied on the basis that proof of service has not been filed five (5) or more days prior to the hearing. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.94(b).) (7/1/20)
- C. Reissuance of Domestic Violence Restraining Orders: A party may request a reissuance of a Request for Order or Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order no later than the day of the scheduled hearing. In a Domestic Violence case, if there are no existing orders and if reissuance is not timely requested, the case will be dismissed in its entirety. (7/1/20)

7.10 Continuances:

If a motion for continuance is to be made, that matter should be placed on calendar no less than five (5) court days prior to the scheduled event along with payment of the filing fee for the motion. If the parties and/or counsel agree that a continuance is necessary, a Stipulation and Order should be submitted to the Court no less than five (5) court days prior to the scheduled event along with the filing fee. Any stipulation and order must state the reason for the continuance, and the parties and/or counsel shall obtain the next available date from the courtroom clerk in the department to which the case is assigned for all purposes. If the Stipulation and Order is timely filed and the above-referenced criteria are met, the Stipulation and Order will be forwarded to the judge for approval. If the Stipulation and Order is not timely received by the Court, the Stipulation and Order must state the reason for the continuance, and the parties or counsel shall obtain the next available date from the courtroom clerk in the department that the case is assigned for all purposes. (1/1/21)

(NOTE: Parties and counsel are not to engage in ex parte communication with the Court or its staff with respect to scheduling requests without prior leave of court. The Court will disregard any comments made about the merits of a case or the positions of the parties and such comments may result in sanctions or other professional discipline after notice and hearing.) (1/1/21)

7.11 Mandatory Settlement Efforts

- A. Meet and Confer Obligation. On all requests for order(s), motions and hearings in family law matters, excluding any matters involving domestic violence, each party, or that party's counsel, shall meet and confer in person or by phone before the hearing date and shall make a good faith attempt to settle all issues in the request for order(s), even if a complete settlement is not possible and only conditional agreements are made. The failure to abide by this rule may result in continuance of the hearing date or may, after notice and a hearing, serve as the base for subsequent conduct-based sanctions. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.98(a); Fam. Code, § 271; Code Civ. Proc., §§ 128.5, 128.7.) (1/1/21)
- B. Copies of Documents: Copies of documents, intended to be offered as part of a case in chief, shall be provided to opposing parties prior to the Court hearing. (Cal Rules of Court, rule 5.98(b).) A party may not wait until the time of the hearing to "surprise" the opposing party with proffered documentary evidence, except to impeach the veracity of a party or witness. (7/1/20)
- C. Settlement prior to hearing: If a case is settled after calendar call but before the hearing, one of the attorneys should inform the judge's bailiff of that fact, whereupon the stipulation may be taken ahead of all contested matters in the judge's discretion. No party shall represent that a case is settled if there is any issue remaining to be determined by the Court. (7/1/20)

7.12 Calendar Management

- A. Limit on time allotted for oral argument: On or prior to the day of a hearing, counsel shall meet and confer prior to the call of the case and determine if the anticipated hearing time exceeds 15 minutes. If both concur that more than 15 minutes of argument will be necessary, they shall advise the clerk in the department to which the case has been assigned for all purposes. The Court may need to reschedule any matter requiring longer than 15 minutes of oral argument for a different date. If a hearing begins and the time estimate of either party is exceeded, the Court may, in its discretion: rule without further hearing; defer the matter to the end of the calendar if time permits; continue the matter to the next available date as obtained from the courtroom clerk in the department that the case is assigned for all purposes; or order the matter off calendar. (7/1/20)
- B. Appearance and time estimate: Prior to the call of the calendar at the designated time, counsel shall advise the bailiff of their presence, other Court appearances, and the status of their matters. When the matter is called, counsel shall state their names, appearances, whether moving or responding, and be prepared to state an accurate time estimate of their side of the case. (7/1/20)
- C. Calendar Conflicts: To ensure the orderly administration of Court calendars and to minimize waiting for counsel, it is the responsibility of counsel to make suitable arrangements in the event of calendar conflicts. Such arrangements include, where necessary, contacting opposing counsel in the advance of the hearing date to arrange a continuance. It is also the responsibility of counsel to notify the Clerk's Office if more than one Request for Order/Motion is being submitted by any attorney on the same day or if any potential conflict(s) may exist on a specific date(s). Failure of an attorney to appropriately manage his or her calendar, or the unreasonable refusal of opposing counsel to stipulate to a continuance when one is necessary, may result in an award of attorney fees and/or sanctions after a noticed hearing is held. In addition, failure to be present at calendar call, or to inform the clerk or bailiff of a necessary appearance in another courtroom, may result in a matter's being either dropped from the court's calendar or heard in the moving party's absence. Unexcused tardiness is unacceptable, and any attorney or client who expects to be late to a hearing must immediately notify the court and the opposing party or attorney of the reasons for and extent of the delay. (7/1/20)
- D. Attorney Competence. Attorneys are expected to be thoroughly prepared to answer the questions of the Court concerning the facts of the case, and to cite applicable statutory and case law if requested by the Court, or if any contested point of law is involved. Violation of this rule may result in monetary or other sanctions deemed appropriate by the Court after notice and hearing. (1/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- E. Notification of status of other proceedings: At the hearing on the motion, petition, or Request for Order, the parties shall call to the attention of the Court any action pending or jurisdiction taken by the Juvenile Court after the filing of the motion, petition, or Request for Order. (7/1/20)
- F. Witnesses: Although parties are authorized to call witnesses at a Short Cause or Law and Motion Hearing, as permitted by Family Code section 217 and California Rule of Court, rule 5.113, every reasonable effort shall be made to stipulate to the testimony of the witness, and thereafter excuse the witness from attendance. The unnecessary retention of witnesses in Court is not favored, and such retention may be considered by the Court in awarding fees and costs. (7/1/20)

7.13 Ex Parte Orders:

Ex parte orders in family law matters shall be presented to the clerk of the court for delivery to a judge assigned to the family law calendar. (7/1/20)

If a party to a dissolution or paternity action is seeking orders because of domestic violence and there is currently a Dissolution or Paternity action filed in this county, said request shall be filed by means of a Request of Domestic Violence Prevention Order (Form DV-100) and shall use the existing case number. This does not apply to Emergency Protective Orders (EPO) that are generated by law enforcement. (7/1/20)

All applications for emergency orders (except for ex parte applications for domestic violence restraining orders) shall be in accordance with Chapter 7 commencing with Rule 5.151 of the California Rules of Court. (7/1/20)

- A. Order Excluding from Home or Stay Away: An application for an ex parte restraining order excluding either party from the family dwelling or the dwelling of the other, or a stay away order causing the same result, must be supported by a declaration showing the danger of immediate and serious harm specifying in detail the time and place of any past act or acts of alleged misconduct as required by Family Code section 6321 and the availability of alternate housing for each party. The declaration in support of any residential stay away order or move out order must contain information stating whether the residence involved is currently occupied by one or both parties, and if not occupied by both, the declaration must contain a statement as to when one or both parties left the residence and the reason why. If the respective residences cannot be determined from the application, the ex parte order will not be issued. This rule also applies to domestic violence proceedings. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

B. Ex Parte Orders Changing Custody of Minor

An application for ex parte order to immediately change the custody of any minor child(ren) must be supported by a declaration showing by clear, specific allegations that the health and welfare of the child(ren) requires immediate change of custody. (Fam. Code, § 3064, subd. (a).) The declaration shall also set forth, in brief, the circumstances in which the child would be placed pending the hearing. The declaration shall also contain a statement of which party currently has actual physical custody of the child(ren) in question, how such physical custody was obtained, and for how long the party has had such physical custody. The party seeking an ex parte order changing custody may be directed to seek relief through Child Protective Services, or other enforcement/investigative agencies. (7/1/20)

C. Exclusive Use of Vehicles

An ex parte order granting exclusive use of a vehicle will not be granted unless the declaration demonstrates that the opposing party either has suitable transportation available or requires no such transportation. (7/1/20)

7.14 Modified Orders or Set Aside Ex Parte Orders:

If the Court modifies any requested orders, it will be the responsibility of the applicant or attorney to conform all copies with the changes before filing and service unless the Court has already done so. (7/1/20)

If a responding party requests an ex parte order be set aside prior to the date set for hearing, notice shall be given to the moving party as provided in Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.151. The Court may order an earlier hearing date or modify the orders on a proper showing in lieu of setting aside the orders. (7/1/20)

A. Stipulations Modifying Existing Orders

In any family law matter in which a modification of an existing order is sought by stipulation, the stipulation must be signed by both parties and their respective attorneys, if any. This includes Stipulations to Set Aside Defaults. Except in Title IV-D cases, any document setting forth a stipulation between the parents regarding child support must be accompanied by Child Support Case Registry forms (FL-191) completed by each parent. Any stipulation addressing the issue of child support not accompanied by a completed Child Support Case Registry form (FL-191) shall be held for ten (10) days after filing and then returned unprocessed unless the form is provided within that time. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

B. Modifications Involving Recipients of Public Assistance Benefits

If the custodial parent has assigned support rights to the County under Family Code section 17400, the Department of Child Support Services and a supporting non-custodial parent (obligor) may stipulate, without the signature of the custodial parent (obligee), for an order modifying the method of payment or changing the amount of support. (7/1/20)

7.15 Post Hearing Proceedings

Submission of Order. All orders signed in Court and presented to parties for filing must be filed with the Clerk's Office within one (1) business day of the hearing. If an order is not signed in court, the moving party shall prepare a written order following any hearing or trial. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and except in summary dissolution cases, California Rules of Court, rule 5.125 governs submission of proposed orders after hearing. However, this court will generally allow 15 days for submission of an order that does not require approval by opposing counsel and 30 days for submission of an order that does require such approval. This court will hold all non-approved orders for a period of five (5) days, after which, regardless of any objection received, the Court will either sign the proposed order, order the preparing party to modify the order as the Court shall direct or hold a hearing to determine the appropriate language. After an order has been signed by the judge and filed, the party preparing the order shall mail two (2) filed marked copies to opposing counsel or one (1) copy to a party appearing in Pro Per and one (1) copy to the Department of Child Support Services office if a party or the child(ren) are on public assistance, and the order relates to child support, spousal support, or child custody. In the event the Judge who heard the hearing or trial is unavailable for longer than two (2) weeks from submission of the order or judgment, the order or judgment shall be signed by the family law presiding judge. (7/1/20, 1/1/21)

7.16 Joint Settlement Conferences, Settlement Conferences, and Statements

A. Application: Rules 7.16-7.19 apply to the court's contested trial calendar. (7/1/20)

B. Settlement Conference Policy Statement: It is the policy of the Superior Court of Stanislaus County to settle issues and cases to the extent legally possible, to allow focus on settlement at the earliest possible date, to reduce the cost of litigation, and to reach a final conclusion of the case fairly and expeditiously. Therefore, compliance with these Settlement Conference Rules, attendance at Joint Settlement Conference, and full participation by both parties and attorneys are all mandatory. After a noticed hearing, sanctions will be imposed for non-compliance. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- C. Mandatory Joint Settlement Conference: To help effectuate the above-stated policy, a Joint Settlement Conference must be held in all family law matters requiring a case management conference before the case will proceed to settlement conference and trial. A Joint Settlement Conference is mandatory. Except in cases where there exists a current restraining order prohibiting personal contact with the other party and both parties are self-represented, the parties and their respective attorneys shall meet to attempt to settle all issues in the case at the Joint Settlement Conference. Attendance by the attorneys and parties is mandatory; attendance by experts and professional advisors is permitted at the option of each party. The Joint Settlement Conference shall take place no sooner than ninety (90) days and no later than thirty (30) days before the date initially set for the settlement conference. (7/1/20)
- D. Settlement Conference Statement. After conclusion of the Joint Settlement Conference, each party shall file a Settlement Conference Statement signed by the party or their attorney. Said Settlement Conference Statement shall be fully completed utilizing Local Form FL-008, which is available on the Court's website under the "Forms" link and is also available at the Family Law Court Clerk's Office. This rule applies in cases where there exists a current restraining order prohibiting personal contact with the other party and both parties are self-represented. Issues not specified in the Settlement Conference Statement may be added later only with the consent of the trial judge, who has discretion to refuse or permit the addition of such issues with whatever qualifications or restrictions the Court deems appropriate. In the event a party/attorney fails to meet or fails to submit a Settlement Conference Statement, that party will then be precluded from requesting the addition of issues not set forth in the other party's Settlement Conference Statement. (1/1/21)
- E. Time for filing: The Settlement Conference Statement must be filed with the Court at least ten (10) Court days prior to the Settlement Conference. (7/1/20)
- F. Conduct of Settlement Conference. All proceedings described in paragraph B, above, are required to have a settlement conference within approximately fifteen (15) days of trial. In each case, counsel who attends the conference shall be thoroughly familiar with the case and shall be prepared to discuss it. The attorney responsible for the preparation and trial of the case should attend the settlement conference. (7/1/20)
- G. Presence of Persons with Settlement Authority. Experience has demonstrated the importance and necessity of the presence of all persons whose consent will be required for a binding settlement agreement. Only on good cause prior to the time of the settlement conference may the Court allow such persons to be available telephonically. (7/1/20)
- H. Violation of Settlement Conference Rules. For a meaningful conference, all

Stanislaus County Superior Court

attorneys and/or the parties must agree and must participate in good faith. (1/1/21)

7.17 Trial Evidence:

The most common types of evidence used in family law contested trials are: (7/1/20)

- A. Subpoena for Child Custody Counselor or Evaluator: Although parties are authorized to call witnesses at a Short Cause or Law and Motion Hearing, as permitted by Family Code section 217 and California Rule of Court, rule 5.113, Code of Civil Procedure § 1987.1 (a) states that a subpoena must be served so as to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and travel to the place of attendance. In custody or visitation matters, a party may decide to subpoena the child custody recommending counselor or child custody evaluator to testify at the trial. These individuals often have their own private practices and need sufficient notice to prepare for their attendance and avoid other scheduling conflicts. Therefore, the Court generally deems reasonable notice, in the absence of exigent circumstances, to be at least 30 days prior to the scheduled hearing date. A failure to give such notice may be the basis for excluding the party from calling that witness at trial. (7/1/20)
- B. Documentary Evidence. Documentary evidence should be offered by stipulation to avoid the need for foundational witnesses. Irrespectively, copies of all such evidence must be exchanged by counsel and identified by the Clerk prior to the commencement of trial. Original transcripts of depositions must be lodged with the Court if they will be referred to at trial. This local rule does not alter or affect the use or admissibility of impeachment or rebuttal materials as provided by the Evidence Code, the Code of Civil Procedure, or the Rules of Court. (1/1/21)

7.18 Trial on attorney's fees:

- A. Application. While attorney's fee requests on the court's short-cause calendar can often be resolved using a fully completed Income and Expense Declaration, the court expects compliance with the following rules governing attorney fees requests on trial matters. (7/1/20, 1/1/21)
- B. Factors to Be Considered. Whether under Family Code sections 270 et seq., 2030 et seq., and 3557, or under another source authorized by law, any party seeking an award of attorney's fees and costs should expect to present evidence on the following issues: (7/1/20)
1. The nature of the litigation; (7/1/20)
 2. Its complexity; (7/1/20)
 3. The nature and extent of the conflict; (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

4. The amounts involved; (7/1/20)
5. The financial circumstances of the parties (both “need” and “ability to pay”); (7/1/20)
6. The skill required; and (7/1/20)
7. The professional standing and reputation of the attorneys. (7/1/20)

The conscientious efforts of counsel to resolve as many areas of disagreement as possible without judicial intervention is entitled to serious consideration in awarding attorney's fees. In addition to the foregoing, the various factors set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 128.5 and Family Code section 271 may bear on the award of attorney's fees to either side, including the resistance of a request for an award on the basis that the services were not “reasonably necessary” to the prosecution or defense of the proceeding. (1/1/21)

C. Documentation in Support of an Award of Fees or Costs: The following rules apply whether the request for an award is noticed or without notice. (7/1/20)

1. Income and Expense Declaration: Fees and costs will not be awarded unless an Income and Expense Declaration (Judicial Council form FL-150) is submitted with each item fully and accurately completed. If special circumstances warrant it, the facts in support should be set forth at item 13 of the Application for Order and Supporting Declaration. Examples of special circumstances would include the need for an appraiser, accountant, actuary, doctor, extensive discovery, or out-of-state discovery, etc. (7/1/20)
2. Declaration Testimony and Billings: Declaration testimony of experts in support of prospective cost awards will be allowed. Where an expert submits a report, a billing based on that service may be admitted at any hearing where the report itself may be received. (7/1/20)
3. Separate declaration required: If a request is made for a combined amount of fees and costs in excess of $1,000.00, the request shall include a separate written declaration signed by the attorney, describing the factors relevant to the request which may include: (7/1/20)
 - a. Services performed and costs incurred to date; (7/1/20)
 - b. Time expended; (7/1/20)
 - c. Hourly rate charged, if applicable; (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- d. Best estimate of the future services to be performed, costs to be incurred and necessity therefore; (7/1/20)
 - e. Each party's access to community assets; (7/1/20)
 - f. Specific amounts requested; (7/1/20)
 - g. A full disclosure of all amounts paid by or on behalf of the party requesting fees and costs; (7/1/20)
 - h. History of prior appearances and awards; and (7/1/20)
 - i. Any other relevant factors. (7/1/20)
- D. Bifurcation (Separate Hearing) Re: Fees and Costs: Counsel may request the opportunity to present evidence of opposing counsel's/opposing party's failures to respond to attempts to resolve the domestic dispute prior to trial. This evidence may be considered relevant to the issue of attorney's fees and costs and/or sanctions, but be inadmissible as "settlement negotiations". In this case, counsel should advise the opposing party and the court by a statement in the pre-trial statement that the issue will be raised, and that counsel requests the issue be bifurcated for hearing after the court renders its dissolution judgment. (7/1/20)

7.19 Post-Trial Proceedings

- A. Post-Trial Motions. Motions to Vacate, for New Trial and for Reconsideration are to be made in full compliance with the Code of Civil Procedure, Family Code and the Rules of Court. In particular, reconsideration motions pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1008, subdivision (a), are not to be requested merely to have a rehearing, or "do-over," of the trial or hearing. Litigants are advised to consider subdivision (c) of the same statute, which reads in relevant part: "A violation of this section may be punished as a contempt..."
- B. Duty to Prepare Judgment: After a contested trial, the party directed by the Court shall prepare the judgment or order in accordance with the Court's decision and shall comply with California Rule of Court 3.1590. (7/1/20, 1/1/21, 7/1/24)

7.20 FAMILY LAW JUDGMENTS:

Rules 7.20-7.24 govern the submission and signing of judgments in Stanislaus County. Parties are advised and encouraged to use the helpful instructions titled Completing Divorce or Separation which have been provided by the state judicial branch and which can be accessed at: <http://www.courts.ca.gov/1035.htm>. These publications contain excellent instructions on what forms need to be filed and what steps taken to obtain a judgment, whether the judgment is by default, uncontested, or after trial. The focus of these rules is to provide parties and their attorneys with information regarding the policies and procedures used in the Stanislaus Superior Court. The Family Law Clerk's Office will provide self-represented litigants with information regarding the Court's Self-Help Center and Family Law Facilitator's Office, either of which can provide additional instructional information to assist self-represented litigants in obtaining a judgment. (7/1/20, 7/1/24)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

7.21 Time for filing judgment and time for finality

- A. Waiting period: Although a judgment for the dissolution of marriage may be submitted for processing at any time, no such judgment can be final until six (6) months have expired from date of service of summons and petition, or date of appearance of Respondent. When a judgment is not presented to the Court for signature until after the six (6) months has lapsed, the marital status will terminate on the date that the Court signs the Judgment. A Judgment for Legal Separation shall not state a marital termination date.
- B. Retention of jurisdiction: Upon noticed motion and good cause shown, or stipulation of the parties, the Court may retain jurisdiction over the date of termination of the marital status, or order the marital status terminated at a future specified date. (Fam. Code, § 2339 et. seq.)
- C. Nunc Pro Tunc Judgments: To be entered nunc pro tunc, a judgment must comply with Family Code section 2346.
- D. Status Only Judgments. A "status only" or "bifurcated judgment" (Family Law) may be obtained pursuant to Family Code section 2337, upon duly noticed motion, or by stipulation and order. (7/1/20, 1/1/21, 7/1/24)

7.22 Formatting Requirements for All Judgments

- A. Identification of Moving Party: Every judgment shall state in the upper left-hand corner the name and address of the person presenting it to the Court for signature (7/1/20)
- B. Use of Judicial Council Forms. When specified as mandatory, Judicial Council Forms and the Court's Local Forms are required to be filed and non-conforming papers may be rejected. (1/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- C. Child Support Case Registry Form: Any stipulation for judgment or judgment addressing the issue of child support shall be returned unprocessed unless accompanied by a completed Child Support Case Registry form (FL-191). Any document setting forth a stipulation between the parents regarding child support must be accompanied by Child Support Case Registry forms (FL-191) completed by at least one parent. (7/1/20)
- D. Completed Income and Expense Declaration: An Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) must be submitted where any one of the following orders is requested: child support, spousal support (except where a party seeks reservation of the Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support in the future), waiver or termination of spousal support in a long-term marriage (10 years or more between the date of marriage and the date of separation), family support, or attorney's fees. Rule 7.05E4 governs completeness of income and expense declarations. (7/1/20)
- E. Support Orders Where Custodial Parent and/or Children are on TANF or CalWorks (formerly known as AFDC)
Where a party wishes to obtain a child, spousal or family support order by default and the custodial parent receives TANF or CalWorks, the Department of Child Support Services, (or other appropriate representative of the County to which support rights have been assigned) must be served with ten (10) calendar days' notice of the request by mail. All such orders for support must specify that payment is to be made to the Department of Child Support Services and include all other orders required by the Department of Child Support Services. Petitioner should modify the child support attachment to the judgment to so reflect. (7/1/20)
- F. Order Reserving the Court's Jurisdiction to Award Child Support
When child support has not been assigned, a party may reserve the Court's jurisdiction to award child support by stating in the judgment: "The Court reserves jurisdiction to award child support without prejudice to any action brought by a party or the Department of Child Support Services." No such reservation of jurisdiction shall be granted unless the party files a declaration stating that neither the party nor the child(ren) are receiving or have applied for TANF or CalWorks or, unless the party so testifies. (7/1/20)
- G. Orders Concerning Child Custody, Child Visitation, Child Support, Spousal Support and Attorney's Fees: Copies of current orders concerning child custody, child visitation, child support, spousal support, and attorney's fees, as applicable, shall be attached to the Judgment. If the judgment includes any of these orders, it must also provide that each party keep the other party informed of that party's current address during the minority of the child. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

H. Custody and Visitation Orders by Default: Where a child custody and visitation order is requested by default the moving party must, either in the supplemental declaration to the Declaration for Default or Uncontested Dissolution/Legal Separation or in the Prehearing Statement, state the following: (7/1/20)

1. Custodial arrangement since separation (7/1/20)
2. Extent of contact between the child and the non-custodial parent; and (7/1/20)
3. If the moving party seeks to deny visitation to the defaulting party, a statement concerning the reasons. (7/1/20)

I. Distribution of assets and debts: If there are assets and/or debts to be disposed of by the Court, the petitioner must propose a division of property and/or debts. The division of the community estate and confirmation of separate property, as applicable, may be set forth either in the body of the judgment, or in an attached agreement incorporated in the Judgment by reference. Especially when proceeding by default, the party submitting the judgment may accomplish this by submitting a declaration listing each item of community property with current market values, encumbrances, and equities. The declaration shall also include a list of all community obligations with identities of creditors and balances due. (7/1/20)

1. Real Property: All real property referred to in the judgment must be described by its complete common street address and legal description. A judgment will not be signed if it contains only the street address. (7/1/20)
2. Motor Vehicles: When motor vehicles are to be divided, petitioner shall attach copies of the Kelly Blue Book valuation showing the current market value and copies of documents showing the current car loan balance. When bank accounts are being divided, the petitioner shall submit copies of bank statements showing balances as of the date of separation. When pension/retirement accounts are to be divided, petitioner shall submit copies of statements showing the balances as of the date of separation and copies showing current values representing the community interest. (7/1/20)

J. Spousal Support

The petitioner must address the issue of spousal support for both parties in the proposed judgment. The petitioner may request that the Court: award spousal support for either party, terminate the Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support to either or both parties, or reserve the Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support in the future to either or both parties. All orders for spousal support shall state the amount of support, the date(s) payable, and unless there is an agreement to the contrary, that support shall terminate on the death of either party or remarriage of the supported party. A marriage of ten (10) or more years is presumptively a long-term marriage. In a long-term marriage petitioner may not automatically waive the right to receive spousal support or terminate respondent's right, absent a showing of the ability of self-support. If the record of financial support is not clear, spousal support in a long-term marriage must be reserved. All judgments awarding spousal shall provide that each party keep the other party informed of that party's current address until spousal support is terminated. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- K. Attorney's Fees Orders. Any request for an award of attorney's fees must be supported by a factual declaration as provided in these local rules, indicating the amount of time the attorney spent on the case and the attorney's hourly rate. (7/1/20, 1/1/21)
- L. Personal Conduct Restraining Order: If the Judgment contains personal conduct restraining orders, a CLETS form must be attached. If a restraining order is in effect on Form DV-130, a copy of the restraining order, along with the date of expiration of the restraining order must also be attached. Good cause for granting any such order(s) shall be set forth in an attached declaration(s). (7/1/20)

7.23 Judgment Procedure

- A. Action by Clerk: After the judge signs the judgment, the Family Law Clerk's Office shall vacate any existing Case Management Conference Hearing, unless otherwise directed by the judge. At the time the notice of entry of judgment is mailed to the parties, the Clerk's Office will advise them of the vacating of the Case Management Conference hearing. (7/1/20)
- B. Notice of Entry of Judgment and Envelopes: Petitioner must submit, together with the proposed judgment and any forms required above, an original and two copies of the notice of entry of judgment. Petitioner shall also submit two (2) stamped envelopes addressed to the parties as listed on the notice of entry of judgment. Envelopes must be of appropriate size with regard to the number of documents submitted and must have sufficient postage affixed. (7/1/20)
1. Signature of Judge: The signature of the judge shall not follow any attached agreement of the parties but shall be set forth on the judgment following the orders of the Court. Where appropriate signatures of the parties and/or their attorneys shall be set forth immediately above the space provided for the date and signature of the judge. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Status as Counsel: After a Final Judgment has been entered, the attorney of record for the party remains as attorney of record, and is entitled to timely notice, unless there is on file a proper withdrawal by either stipulation or order, or pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 285.1. (7/1/20)

7.24 Rules Specific to Default and/or Uncontested Judgments: The paragraphs in this rule apply to default and/or uncontested judgments, only.

- A. Prerequisites to Obtaining an Uncontested Judgment: An Uncontested judgment may be submitted if and only if one of the following has occurred: 1) Respondent has been declared in default; 2) Respondent has appeared but has also filed an Appearance, Stipulation and Waivers form by which the parties have stipulated to proceed uncontested; and/or 3) if Respondent has filed a response, the parties may appear in open court and both orally stipulate to waive notice of time and place of trial, findings and conclusion, and statement of decision and agree that the matter shall be heard on the uncontested calendar. (7/1/20)
- B. Notice of Entry of Default/Request to Enter Default
In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, where a request to enter default is submitted, the petitioner shall provide the Court Clerk with a stamped envelope bearing sufficient postage addressed to the spouse who was defaulted, with the address of the Court Clerk (Clerk of the Superior Court, P.O. Box 1098, Modesto, CA, 95353-1098) as the return address, and the Court clerk shall mail a copy of the request to enter default to that spouse in the envelope provided. (7/1/20)
- C. Family Law Judgment by Declaration: All papers necessary to obtain a judgment by declaration under Family Code section 2336 shall be filed with the clerk. A request to enter default, or appearance, stipulation and waivers, as applicable, is required to be submitted for filing as appropriate. (7/1/20)
- D. Declaration for Default or Uncontested Dissolution/Legal Separation: After the default has been entered and the declaration regarding service of the preliminary declaration of disclosures has been filed, the petitioner must file a completed Declaration for Default or Uncontested Dissolution/Legal Separation (Form FL-170). This Declaration must address all issues in the Petition and may not request any orders in the judgment beyond the relief requested in the petition. A Supplemental Declaration (Local Form FL-019) or Pre-Hearing Statement (Local Form FL-002) can be used for issues not covered within the contents of the Judicial Council Form FL-170. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

E. Marital Settlement Agreements and Stipulations for Entry of Judgments: In a default or uncontested dissolution action, no marital settlement agreement or stipulation for entry of judgment shall be approved by the Court unless: (7/1/20)

1. Required Approvals: Allegations in the petition refer to the making of the marital settlement agreement or the agreement, or a separate agreement signed and filed by the parties and their respective attorneys provides that the agreement may be presented for Court approval, or the adverse party and his attorney have endorsed their approval of the agreement on the form of judgment; (7/1/20)
2. Counsel: The parties thereto are represented by separate counsel and the agreement or stipulation for entry of judgment is signed by such parties and their respective attorneys. If only one party is represented, an affidavit filed by the other party to the agreement stating that s/he has been advised to consult an attorney in reference to the agreement, but declined to do so, will be accepted in lieu of the signature of an attorney for such party. Such affidavit shall be a separate document limited solely to a waiver of counsel. (7/1/20)

3. Policy Regarding Staff Court Reporters.

- a. Counsel or parties without counsel will be billed for this service if a free reporter is not being provided. The billing statements will include the date, case number, time charged and amount due. (1/1/22)

When there is more than one party per side, each side will be billed 50%. That is, one party from each side will pay or be billed. The billed party will be responsible to collect from the other parties. Non-payment of any court reporter fees shall result in the denial of future court reporter services to the non-paying party or attorney and the assessment of collection charges.
- c. The Court reserves the right to order proceedings reported if both sides waive reporting services and if reporting services are deemed necessary by the Court. In that event, all parties will be ordered to share the cost pursuant to the fee schedule below.
- d. The fee schedule for official court reporting services is:
 - 1 day - $700.00
 - 1/2 day - $350.00 (A ½ day is defined as any hearing or matter lasting longer than one (1) hour.) (7/1/22)

- 4. Daily Transcripts: Request for daily transcripts in family law cases must be made at least one week in advance of trial. Parties requesting daily transcripts will be required to pay daily transcript rates and the per diem rate for an official court reporter (unless the parties agree to split the costs). The cost of daily transcripts is not covered when the court provides a court reporter pursuant to an approved fee waiver.

Additionally, pursuant to Government Code section 69953.5, if a request for daily

Stanislaus County Superior Court

transcripts requires the services of more than one court reporter, the party requesting the daily transcripts shall pay the per diem rate for the services of each additional court reporter required to fulfill the request. (1/1/22)

5. Transcripts of Trial or Other Proceedings: Whenever a party requests a court reporter to furnish a transcript of all or part of a trial or proceedings, the court reporter shall forthwith inform all other parties of such request and inquire whether any of such parties desires, at his own expense, a copy of such transcript. An approved fee waiver does not cover the cost of a reporter's transcript. (1/1/22)

6. Availability of Staff Reporters – Family Law Matters:

If there are insufficient staff court reporters to report family law trials or law and motion matters, a party may arrange for the presence of a certified shorthand reporter at their own expense pursuant to California Rules of Court 2.956. A party with an approved fee waiver may request an official court reporter within the time limits set forth in these rules at no expense to the party. An approved fee waiver does not cover the cost of a reporter's transcript. Parties should check with the Supervising Court Reporter regarding the availability of a staff court reporter. Contact may be made via e-mail: familylawreporters@stanct.org or by phone at (209) 530-3105. In the event a party arranges for the presence of a certified court reporter at their own expense without checking to see if an official court reporter is available and there is an official court reporter available, the official court reporter will report the proceedings. (1/1/21, 1/1/22)

7. Court Requested Family Law Transcript:

Pursuant to Government Code section 69953, in any case where a verbatim record is not made at public expense pursuant to Government Code section 69952, the cost of making any verbatim record shall be paid by the parties in equal proportion. Either party, at his own option, may pay the whole cost. Civil proceedings do not fall under the parameters of Government Code section 69952.

When the judge requests the reporter provide a transcript of the proceedings not covered in Section 69952, the parties are responsible for sharing the cost of that transcript. The reporter will begin working on the judge's requested transcript when they receive payment in full from the party or parties. If either party chooses to purchase a transcript of their own, the cost of their copy will be added to their portion of the invoice. (1/1/21, 1/1/22)

Counsel wishing to remain on the Court's appointment list shall file a new, signed FL-322 at the beginning of each calendar year. (1/1/22)

3. Appointment as Minor's Counsel

Upon acceptance and appointment, the Order Appointing Counsel for a Child (FL-323) shall be prepared and completed by the judge assigned to the case for all purposes and then filed and served in conformity with law and procedure. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Ex Parte Exception: If a minor has been living with the proposed guardian for a considerable time and there is sufficient reason to believe that a parent(s) will remove the child from the petitioner's custody upon being served with the notice of the temporary guardianship application, the Court will consider an ex parte temporary guardianship. (7/1/20)
3. Mediation: At the hearing on the temporary guardianship, the matter may be referred to the Court Investigators' Office for mediation. (7/1/20)
4. Investigation: Prior to the date set for the ex parte appointment, all petitions and documents pertinent to the temporary application shall be reviewed by the Court Investigator. The petition shall state the facts giving rise to the need for the guardianship and for issuance of ex parte orders. (7/1/20)
5. Judicial Review: Temporary petitions will be reviewed by the Court Investigators. A petition will go to the judge only if it is procedurally correct and if the required notice has been given or dispensed with. Unless some degree of urgency is present, the Court ordinarily will not entertain an ex parte application for appointment of temporary guardian. (7/1/20)
6. Uncontested Hearing: If no opposition is presented and the matter appears appropriate, the Court may grant the petition without an appearance. (7/1/20)

C. Reconsideration of Temporary Guardianships

Each petition for temporary guardianship granted on an ex parte basis will be set for a hearing pursuant to Probate Code section 2250, subdivision (d) no more than thirty (30) days from the date the judge signs the order. That hearing date will be assigned and calendared by the Superior Court Clerk's Office at Family Court Services, Room 221. (7/1/20)

D. Appointment of General Guardian

1. General Procedures: Hearings on guardianship proceedings are held on Monday through Thursday mornings in the Family Court. The matter will be continued for appropriate criminal and Child Protective Services checks on the Petitioner. A brief report will be submitted at the court hearing recommending either for or against the proposed guardianship. Appearance of the proposed guardian and counsel are required. The Court does not favor dispensing with statutory notice for the appointment of a general guardian of a minor. However, the Court may dispense with notice if sufficient grounds are given to justify that notice cannot be given with reasonable diligence or that the giving of such notice is contrary to the interests of justice. In all cases the Court will require nomination or consent of a minor if such minor is twelve (12) years of age or older and if such minor has the capacity to nominate. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

2. Service: Endorsed filed copies of all documents shall be served by first class mail on the Court Investigator, P.O. Box 3488, Modesto, CA 95353 or personally delivered to Family Court Services/Court Investigators' Office, Room 221, at the Courthouse, no less than forty-five (45) days prior to the hearing, or on the date of the filing of such documents. Box 42, Modesto, CA 95353. Petitions for appointment of a guardian shall be set for hearing at least twenty (20) days after the date of filing. Although only fifteen (15) days' notice is required by the Probate Code, the additional time is necessary to insure that the proceeding is not delayed because the agencies did not have sufficient time to complete their investigation. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

F. Investigation Fees re: Guardian

Contact the Superior Court Clerk at Family Court Services for the amount of the current investigation fee in Relative and Non-relative Guardianship cases. 3. Stipulations: The matter may be resolved, wherein an order will be prepared by the Investigator's Office setting forth the nature of the guardianship if appropriate,

Stanislaus County Superior Court

4. Continuances: The matter may be continued for review by the mediator to allow the parties to modify and/or change the circumstances of the parent in such a fashion that an agreement is reached to either return the child to the parent or continue with the guardianship. (7/1/20)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

8.02 Time for Filing

In all probate matters, papers necessary for hearing (such as proof of service, posting, orders, etc.) shall be filed with the Probate Clerk at least five (5) court days before the date of hearing, so that such documents may be placed in the file and checked by the Probate Examiner prior to hearing. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays shall not be considered court days. Exceptions to this rule will be made at the discretion of the judge, but only for good cause.

A late filing fee of $25 per document may be charged for each document received for filing less than five (5) Court days prior to the hearing, at the discretion of the judge, after providing the late-filing party with notice and an opportunity to be heard. (7/1/13, 1/1/20, 7/1/21)

8.03 Form of Papers Presented for Filing

- A. Papers presented for filing with the Probate Clerk – whether electronically or over the counter - shall conform to CRCs 2.100 and 3.1110 except that descriptions of assets may be single spaced within each item.

8.05 Hearing Date Required on Documents

The date of the hearing shall be placed immediately below the case number on the first page of every document filed which relates to a matter already set for hearing. Failure to include the hearing date on documents filed less than five (5) court days prior to hearing could delay matching the document with the court file and may result in a continuance. (7/1/06)

NOTICES

8.09 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.09 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.10 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.10 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.11 Probate Matters Once Noticed Cannot Be Advanced

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, when a hearing on a probate matter has been noticed, or when it has been noticed and then continued to a definite date, the matter cannot be heard before the date set, either by means of a new petition, an amended petition, or by a new notice. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.12 Notice of Petition to Administer Estate

Notice of a petition to administer estate must be published pursuant to Prob. Code § 8120 and CRC 7.54. Defects in publication will cause the matter to be continued and will require that the notice be republished. (7/1/06, 7/1/21)

8.13 General Notice Requirements

Counsel are reminded that the notice requirements in the Probate Code vary greatly. No set pattern may be discerned. The specific requirements of the Code (i.e. posting, mailing, publication, personal service, etc.) must be confirmed for every petition filed. (7/1/21)

8.14 Persons Entitled to Notice

A. The following persons are entitled to notice (see Prob. Code § 8110):

1. Heirs of the Decedent: Whether or not a decedent died with a will, the petition must contain the names and relationships of all of the decedent's heirs-at-law. An heir-at-law is any person who would be entitled to distribution of a part of the decedent's estate (including distribution by virtue of Prob. Code § 6402.5 if the decedent had a predeceased spouse) if the decedent died intestate (without leaving a will);
2. Beneficiaries Named in the Will: This includes all named contingent beneficiaries who may be entitled to share in the estate, and also includes persons provided for in the Will but whose gifts have been revoked by a subsequent modification to the will;
3. Deceased Heir or Beneficiary (See CRC 7.51(e)); if heir or beneficiary died before decedent;

Stanislaus County Superior Court

4. Trustee Nominee. Any nominated trustee of a trust created by the will;
5. Beneficiaries of Testamentary Trusts. The terms “beneficiaries named in the Will” and “named contingent beneficiaries” used above include beneficiaries named in testamentary trusts. It is not adequate merely to give notice to the trustee of a trust where beneficiaries or contingent beneficiaries are named in testamentary trusts;
6. Trustees of Inter-Vivos Trusts who will receive “pour over” gifts from the decedent’s estate. Item 8 on the Petition For Probate (Judicial Council Form DE-111) requires the petitioner to list “all beneficiaries of a trust named in the decedent’s will or any codicil in which the trustee and personal representative are the same person.” Since use of applicable Judicial Council forms is mandatory and the purpose of Item 8 is to identify persons entitled to receive notice of the petition, the Probate Division will require notice to be given to present and contingent beneficiaries of trusts where the trustee is a beneficiary of the will and the trustee is identical to the proposed personal representative;
7. Any non-petitioning Executor, including alternate executors named in the Will; and
8. The California Attorney General, where there is a charitable trust involved (Prob. Code § 8111). (7/1/21)

B. Method of giving various notices:

1. Unknown Address. If the address of an heir or beneficiary is unknown, the Court requires a declaration stating specifically what efforts were made to locate such heir or beneficiary before the Court will dispense with notice or prescribe an alternate form of notice. See Prob. Code § 1212 and Code of Civil Procedure § 413.30 as to what efforts are necessary. In general, these efforts shall include inquiry of relatives, friends, acquaintances, and employers and investigation of appropriate city and telephone directories, and the real and personal property index at the County Assessor’s Office of the county of last known residence of the missing heir or beneficiary. (See CRC 7.51(d)).
2. Minors. See Prob. Code § 1460.1 and CRC 7.51(d).

- C. If a Probate Code section requires the clerk to “cause notice of the hearing to be mailed,” the clerk fulfills this function by requiring counsel to do the mailing. Therefore, counsel is charged with this duty. (7/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

8.15 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.15 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.16 Notice to Foreign Consuls

Notice must be given to a recognized diplomatic or consular official as required under Prob. Code § 8113. If a devisee or heir is an American citizen residing in a foreign country, that fact should be alleged and notice to the diplomatic or consular official is not required.

Whether a country has recognized diplomatic or consular representation in the United States may be ascertained from the United States Department of State. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.17 Notice to Director of Health Services

If a deceased person has received or may have received health care through the Department of Health Services, or if the decedent was the surviving spouse of a person who received that health care, notice of the decedent's death must be given to the Director of Health Services pursuant to Prob. Code §215. A copy of the proof of service or a declaration that notice is not required must be filed in all decedent's estate matters. (7/1/99)

APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

8.18 Declination to Serve

If the person named in the decedent's will as executor declines to act as such, his written and signed declination to act must be filed with the Court unless evidence is produced that he is incompetent or refuses to act. (7/1/99)

8.23 Proving Wills - Declaration or Self Proving

- A. The Court prefers that both formal witnessed wills and holographic wills be proven by declaration rather than by testimony. The declaration shall have a photographic copy of the will or codicil attached. (Prob. Code § 8220)
- B. Proof as to the admissibility of each testamentary document must be submitted except that, in the event there is a codicil which expressly republishes the will, proof of the execution of the codicil may be deemed sufficient.
- C. To avoid a continuance of the hearing, an affidavit or declaration proving the will should be filed with the Clerk at least five (5) Court days before the time set for the hearing of the petition for probate of will.
- D. In uncontested proceedings self-proving wills need no additional proof unless requested by the Court. A will may be considered self-proving if the attestation clause contains the elements in the California Statutory Will form set forth in Prob. Code §6240 as follows:
 - 1. The testator requested the witnesses to sign as witnesses to the testator's signature.
 - 2. The witnesses and the testator signed in the presence of each other.
 - 3. The testator is of sound mind and memory and does not appear to be acting under duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

4. The witnesses are over the age of 18 years.
5. The testator is over the age of 18 years.
6. The witnesses signed under penalty of perjury. (1/1/12, 7/1/21)

8.24 Copy of Will to Be Attached to Petition for Probate

- A. If the will is holographic or handwritten, in addition to a photocopy, a typewritten copy of the will must be attached to the petition, to the original will and to the proof of holographic instrument.
- B. The Court encourages reducing the copy of any original will on legal sized paper (14 inches) to standard size (11 inches). (1/1/04)
- C. If the will is written in a language other than English, the Court requires a translation prepared by a translator certified to translate from the original language. (7/1/21)

8.26 Naming Heirs and Beneficiaries in Petition

All petitions pertaining to the administrative duties of a fiduciary must include the names of all persons and entities mentioned in the decedent's will and codicils regardless of any lack of devise or bequest to said person or entity. In addition:

- A. If a trust was created by the decedent, the petition must contain a list setting forth the identification of the trustee(s) and all beneficiaries of the trust.
- B. A list of contingent beneficiaries if the interest of the beneficiary is contingent as of the date of the petition, or the happening of an event, such as survivorship for a specified period.
- C. A list of each person provided for in the original will whose devise has been revoked in a subsequent codicil.
- D. The street address of the proposed personal representative and his or her relationship to the decedent.
- E. The deceased ancestor through which second generation heirs take, along with the ancestor's relationship to decedent, when second generation heirs are listed in the petition. (1/1/10, 7/1/21)

MOTIONS AND PETITIONS

8.34 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.34 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.35 Petitions for Ex Parte Orders

- A. The Court may handle certain requests for relief without appearance (i.e. on an ex parte basis) including (but not limited to) the following:
 - 1. Application for Withdrawal of Funds from Blocked Account;
 - 2. Application for Appointment of Guardian ad Litem;
 - 3. Application for Petition for Final Discharge and Order;
 - 4. Application for any of the relief set forth in CRC 3.1207.
 - 5. Petition for Appointment of Special Administrator.
- B. Any other ex parte matter not covered above must be submitted to the Probate Clerk for review by the Probate Examiner. Within 72 hours of submission of the ex parte application, the Court will either issue an order approving or denying the requested relief, or provide a hearing date.
- C. Other than as set forth above, the Court will not entertain any ex parte petition that does not comply with CRC 3.1200 through 3.1206, and is not accompanied by a declaration that makes “an affirmative factual showing ... containing competent testimony based on personal knowledge of irreparable harm, immediate danger, or any other statutory basis for granting relief ex parte.” CRC 3.1202€.
- D. All Law and Motion ex parte matters must be approved and scheduled by the assigned judge through their courtroom clerk, prior to filing documents with the Probate Clerk’s Office. For matters assigned to Department 22, the courtroom clerk may be reached at (209)530-3171. For matters assigned to Department 25, the courtroom clerk may be reached at (209)236-7894. If your matter is assigned to a different department, please call the Court’s main number (209)530-3100 and follow the prompts.
- E. If an ex parte petition for appointment of any conservator or a guardian is reviewed and assigned a hearing date, the Court will require five (5) days’ notice has been given (Prob. Code sections 2250(e) and 2250.2 through 2250.6), unless the petitioner has shown both irreparable harm or immediate danger, and “good cause” for waiving the notice requirements.
- F. Counsel requesting waiver or shortening of any notice time periods prescribed by the Probate Code must submit a Declaration of Due Diligence to the Court citing the specific notice provision at issue, setting forth facts relating to the efforts to give such notice (or facts supporting the conclusion that it was impossible to give such notice) and explaining the good cause for waiving or shortening the time.

- G. A party seeking an ex parte order – other than as set forth in A. – must submit the application and all supporting papers to the Probate Clerk not later than 2:00 p.m. the afternoon before the hearing. The Probate Clerk may reject any ex parte pleadings that do not comply with this deadline.
- H. An ex parte order will not be granted unless accompanied by a verified petition (or a sworn declaration where applicable) containing facts and law to justify granting the requested relief.
- I. Ex parte petitions filed in decedent's estates for the sale of stock or personal property must allege whether the property is specifically bequeathed. If bequeathed, the specific legatee must consent to the sale and the consent must accompany the petition.
- J. All applications for ex parte orders must be accompanied by a separate order complete in itself and shall be presented to the Probate Court Clerk. It is not sufficient for such an order to provide merely that the application has been granted, or that the sale of property "as set forth in the petition" has been approved.
(Rule 8.35 [7/1/99, 7/1/21] amended July 1, 2025.)

8.36 Uncontested Matters

At a hearing on a verified petition oral testimony will not be permitted. All evidence should be stated in the petition, or accompanying declaration. (7/1/21)

8.37 Contested Matters

- A. In the event of any contest or objection to any petition on the Probate calendar, the parties and their respective attorneys, if any, shall make a reasonable and good faith attempt to informally resolve the controversy at a face-to-face meeting, if possible, and otherwise by telephone or video conference, before any hearing of the contested petition.
- B. If a contested matter can be submitted on the pleadings with argument, it will be heard at the end of the Probate appearance calendar. As time permits, brief offers of proof will be allowed.
- C. Long-cause hearings in contested matters: Contested matters requiring two (2) hours or less will be heard on a date certain in the Probate Department. Contested matters

ORDERS

8.41 Probate Orders

A. Probate Orders

Attorneys or self-represented litigants are to prepare all orders. If counsel wish to obtain orders on matters that are approved on the day of hearing, those orders must be delivered to the Probate Unit of the Clerk's Office at least five (5) Court days prior to the hearing. The orders should be submitted separately and not attached to any other document or pleading. All orders or decrees in probate matters must be complete in themselves. They shall set forth all matters actually passed on by the Court, the date of hearing, the relief granted, the names of interested persons, and descriptions of property or amounts of money affected, with the same particularity required of judgments in civil matters.

All orders must be prepared so that the general effect may be determined without reference to the petition on which the order is based. No order shall merely recite that the petition as presented is granted.

The signature line must always be at the end of the order and not followed by any attachment. It should never be on a page by itself.

No additions or deletions are to be made to court orders after they have been signed.

All orders except for conservatorship and guardianship cases signed in open Court or in ex parte hearings and presented to attorneys for filing must be filed with the Probate Clerk's Office immediately after the conclusion of the court proceeding in which the order is signed. Surrendering an original court order to anyone other than court personnel or a member of the bar association, or failure to present a signed order to the Clerk's Office for filing immediately after the proceeding in which the order is signed, shall render that order null and void. (7/1/08, 7/1/21)

B. Inventory Review Hearing

At the time an order is made appointing a personal representative of an estate, a review hearing will be scheduled six (6) months from the date of appointment. The purpose of this hearing is to monitor the filing of the Inventory and Appraisal. All inventories are due four months from the date of issuance of Letters. Prob. Code § 8800(b). (1/1/08, 7/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

FAMILY ALLOWANCE

8.42 When Court Approval Not Required

If the estate is being administered under the Independent Administration of Estates Act, the personal representative may pay a reasonable family allowance in accordance with Prob. Code § 10535. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.43 Duration

The duration of an order for family allowance is limited to six (6) months if no inventory and appraisal has been filed and is limited to one year if an inventory and appraisal has been filed. For good cause shown in writing, such orders may be renewed. The order shall state the commencement date and the period payments are to be made; i.e., "commencing with date of death and continuing until the inventory is filed, but not to exceed six (6) months." (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.44 Contents of Request for Family Allowance

The application for an allowance shall include at least the following data:

- A. The applicant's income from sources outside the estate,
- B. An itemized list of the applicant's assets, and a statement of the appropriate value of each,
- C. A general statement of the assets and of the liabilities of the estate,
- D. The date of the application,
- E. The date of the decedent's death,
- F. A general statement of other applications (if any) on file for allowances. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.45 Ex Parte Orders-When Permitted

If the petition for family allowance is made before an inventory and appraisal has been filed, it may be presented ex parte to the Court unless it is a petition for a second or additional family allowance, in which event it shall be noticed and placed on the calendar.

The petition for family allowance will not be granted ex parte under either of the following circumstances:

Stanislaus County Superior Court

- A. If the petition is made more than six (6) months after the administrator or executor has qualified, or
- B. If the petitioner is someone other than the personal representative and the petition is not accompanied by either of the following documents signed by the personal representative: (1) Consent to the allowance or (2) Waiver of Notice. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.46 Late Requests

Requests for a family allowance should be made in a timely fashion. The Court discourages requests for retroactive payment of family allowance beyond two (2) months.

If the application is made more than six (6) months after the administrator or executor has qualified, it must be noticed and placed on the calendar. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

SALES OF PROPERTY

8.53 Sale or Encumbrance of Specifically Devised or Bequeathed Property

No specifically devised or bequeathed real property shall be encumbered or offered for sale unless first approved by the Court after not less than ten (10) days' notice to the specific devisee or legatee, or unless the consent of the devisee or legatee is on file. (7/1/99)

8.54 Appraisal of Real Property Within One Year

Real property must have been appraised within one (1) year of the time of sale. Since the first appraisal reflects the value at the time of death of the decedent, if the date of death is more than one year prior to the date of sale, a reappraisal for sale is required. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.55 Published Notice of Sale of Real Property

Unless a personal representative has full authority under the Independent Administration of Estates Act or a will exists which specifically grants an executor the authority to sell without notice (Prob. Code § 10303), a publication of notice of sale of real property is required. A power of sale given by a will to a named executor does not extend to an administrator with will annexed unless the sale is authorized by the will.

If publication of the notice of sale is performed, the following requirements shall be met:

- A. Any sale must be in substantial accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the notice.
- B. The published notice of sale of real property constitutes a solicitation for offers. A petition must not be filed and an offer must not be accepted prior to the date of sale specified in the published notice. If this situation occurs, the sale will be denied.
- C. When the personal representative accepts an offer and files a petition for confirmation of sale, there cannot be a material variance in the terms of sale as between the notice and the petition. Also, if the notice solicits cash offers only, the Court cannot confirm a sale on terms other than cash.
- D. In conservatorships and guardianships, absent an order under Prob. Code § 2591(c) granting the conservator or guardian the independent power to sell real property of the estate, publication shall be required. (7/1/09, 7/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

8.56 Mailed Notice of Sale

For all sales, notice of hearing on the petition for confirmation and a copy of the petition must also be served by mail at least fifteen (15) days before the hearing on the persons designated in Prob. Code § 1220 and on each of the proposed purchasers (Prob. Code § 10308(c)). (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.57 Description of Property

All legal notices for the sale of real property and the petition for confirmation of sale shall contain, in addition to the legal description, the common street address of the property. If there is no common street address, some indication of the location of the property shall be included. (7/1/99)

8.58 Bond on Sale of Real Property

If a bond or additional bond is required in an order confirming sale of real estate, the Court must not file the order until the additional bond is filed. (1/1/02)

8.59 Broker's Commission on Sale of Real Property

Upon the confirmation of the sale of improved real property, a broker's commission of a maximum 6 percent (6%) of the gross sales price will be allowed. For the sale of unimproved real property, the maximum allowable commission will be ten percent (10%). On a showing of good cause, the Court may consider other terms. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

8.60 Deposit

Bids for the purchase of real property must be accompanied by a minimum deposit of ten percent (10%) of the purchase price unless the buyer's committed loan proceeds exceed ninety percent (90%) of the purchase price. In addition, overbids shall be accompanied by a cashier's check, equal to ten percent (10%) of the amount of the first overbid. On a showing of good cause, the Court may consider other terms. (7/1/99)

8.61 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.61 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.62 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.62 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.63 Conditional Sales of Real Property

The Court will ordinarily not approve a sale of real property which is conditioned upon the occurrence of a subsequent event (such as change in zoning or obtaining approval from an environmental control board). However, if unusual and extraordinary circumstances exist and the necessity and advantage to the estate are set forth in detail the Court may approve such a sale. (7/1/99)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

8.64 Sales of Real Property When Buyer Assumes Encumbrance

Sales of real estate will not ordinarily be confirmed where the buyer assumes or takes subject to an existing encumbrance if the estate is subject to a contingent liability. The return should set forth the facts pertinent to such assumption agreement and any contingent liability. (7/1/99)

8.66 Trust and Specifically Bequeathed Property-Allocation of Receipts and Disbursements

(Refer to Prob. Code §1063.) (7/1/99)

8.67 Debts Paid Without Verified Claims

Payment of debts of the decedent arising upon contract or funeral expenses of the decedent must be supported by verified claims presented or filed within the statutory period and allowed and approved. This rule also applies to debts and funeral expenses paid by the personal representative from his own funds, in which case a claim by the representative for reimbursement must be presented and filed in the usual way, supported by a receipt or other sufficient evidence of payment.

Although a verified claim has not been filed, the Court may, under Prob. Code §§9154 and 11005, approve the payment of a debt if the accounting shows that such debt was paid during the time within which such claim could have been filed and the estate is solvent. Such approval, however, is discretionary with the Court and must be justified by allegations in a verified petition or by testimony in open court as to the factors referred to in Prob. Code §9154. [See Estate of Erwin, 117 C.A.2d 203 (1953).] (7/1/99)

8.68 Withholding Funds from Distribution

If the Petition for Final Distribution is approved with a reserve of less than $5,000, the personal representative need not account for the reserve and may be discharged on the filing of an Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge (Judicial Council form DE-295) that attaches conformed copies of the filed receipts only for the approved distribution. If the Petition for Final Distribution reserves an amount equal to or greater than $5,000 but less than $20,000, the personal representative must file a supplemental declaration setting forth the disposition of the reserve before or concurrently with the Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge. If the reserve amount is $20,000 or more, a supplemental accounting of the reserve must be filed and set for hearing and notice of the hearing must be given in the same manner as for any regular accounting. The Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge may not be filed until the supplemental accounting is approved.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

(Rule 8.68 (1/1/10) amended January 1, 2025)

8.69 Petition for Distribution Without an Account -Waivers of Account

Although a preliminary or final distribution may be made without an accounting, sufficient facts must be set forth in the petition to allow the Court to ascertain that the estate is solvent. The Court will not permit distribution in an insolvent estate without an account.

The effect of the waiver is to make it unnecessary to list the detail of receipts and disbursements. The calculation of statutory commissions and/or attorney's fees must include losses on sales and include gains on sales. All other matters contained in Prob. Code §§1062, 1063 and 10900 must be presented in the report. Creditors' claims, property on hand to be distributed, computation of attorney's fees and executor's fees, and costs of administration, must be listed in the report. (Also refer to Local Rule 8.83).

A waiver of account or an acknowledgment that an interest has been satisfied on final distribution must comply with Prob. Code § 10954. A notarized acknowledgement of the signature of the heir or beneficiary shall be included on each waiver of account. (7/1/08)

8.70 Signing of Account

Any account and report required to be filed by a fiduciary must be personally signed by the fiduciary. When more than one fiduciary is serving, the account and report must be signed by each of them, or the absence of one signature satisfactorily explained. (7/1/99)

8.71 Vouchers

Vouchers supporting accounts are not to be filed with the Clerk unless the Court orders them filed. (Prob. Code § 10900) (7/1/99)

8.72 Damages for Wrongful Death, Physical Injury and Property Damage

Damages recovered as a result of a decedent's wrongful death, as distinguished from physical injury or property damage incurred by the decedent, are held by the fiduciary on behalf of the decedent's statutory beneficiaries and are not part of the estate. (CCP § 377.60) However, if an executor or administrator collects damages and costs arising out of physical injury or property damage incurred by the decedent, they shall hold such money in their representative capacity as property of the estate, and such damages must be inventoried. If such report is filed, it shall show the condition of the estate and the reasons why the estate cannot be distributed and closed. Said report shall comply with Prob. Code § 12200.

A status review hearing will be set six (6) months from the date of the successful inventory review hearing. The purpose of this status review hearing is to monitor the case to verify that either a petition for final distribution or a status report has been filed. (1/1/08)

If

Stanislaus County Superior Court

distribution will be made to such person, the petition for distribution must contain an allegation that no such notice is required or that a notice of death has been provided to California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board as required by Prob. Code § 9202, and whether or not the Director of the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board has demanded collection of any outstanding restitution fines or orders. (1/1/23)

- G. An allegation that a notice of administration has been provided to Franchise Tax Board as required by Prob. Code §§1215 and 9202, or that no such notice is required.
- H. An allegation as to the character of the property, whether separate or community.
- I. An allegation that all cash in the estate has been invested in interest bearing accounts, except for an amount of cash that is reasonably necessary for the orderly administration of the estate.
- J. A computation of the attorney fees and representative commissions requested, including the fee base, including gains or losses on sales. If the fee or commission is being waived, the petition shall so state.
- K. An itemization of all costs of administration, whether or not reimbursement is requested.
- L. The caption of a petition must be all-inclusive as to the relief sought. This includes, but is not limited to, a request for final distribution, distribution to a trust, request for statutory or extraordinary fees or commissions.
- M. A full and complete description of all assets on hand, including the legal description, assessor's parcel number, carry value and current fair market value. There shall also be a schedule setting forth the proposed distribution.

8.86 (RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE) (8.86 Repealed 7/1/21)

8.86.1 Distribution Care-of Attorney

The Court will not order distribution of an heir's or devisee's interest in the estate care-of his or her attorney, unless the written consent of the heir or devisee is filed with the Court. (1/1/09)

8.87 Distribution Pursuant to Agreement

If the distributees seek distribution in a manner other than that provided by the will or by the laws of intestate succession, that fact should be alleged, and a written agreement (signed by all involved distributees with signatures acknowledged before a notary public) must be filed. If an Agreement for Distribution contains an assignment of interest from one party to another, the agreement must contain specific wording as to the assignment or a separate form of Assignment of Interest which has been signed and acknowledged before a Notary Public must be filed in the proceeding.

Note: If any such distributee is a minor or is under disability, the agreement must be signed by the minor's legal guardian. Either earlier Court approval of the agreement in the guardianship proceeding must be proved in the probate proceeding or a petition for approval of the agreement in both the guardianship proceeding and the probate proceeding must be brought on for hearing at the same time. (7/1/08)

8.91 Orders Dispensing with Accounts

JOINT TENANCIES AND LIFE ESTATES

8.93 Proceedings in Name of Decedent

A petition to establish the fact of death must be filed in the name of the deceased person whose interest has been terminated. The petition must be verified. (7/1/99)

8.94 Separate Petition Preferred

Probate Code §200, et seq. authorizes a petition to establish fact of death to be included in a verified petition for probate of will or for letters of administration. However, attorneys are encouraged to file a separate petition under the same number in order to avoid administrative difficulties. No such separate petition may be filed after the filing of a petition for final distribution; and, if a petition to establish fact of death is then filed, it should be in a new proceeding under a new number. (7/1/99)

8.95 Obtaining Order

The order can be obtained ex parte if the petition is accompanied by:

- A. An affidavit or declaration by petitioner that petitioner has no reason to believe that there is any opposition to, or contest of the petition.
- B. A death certificate.
- C. A copy of the deed or other document that created the joint tenancy, and
- D. The proposed order.
- E. Filings not accompanied by these documents must be set for hearing in accordance with the appropriate Probate Code section.
- F. If a check for the certification fee and a stamped self-addressed envelope are furnished, the Clerk will obtain the Judge's signature, file the order, certify the copy, and mail it to the petitioner's attorney. (7/1/99)

8.96 Fees

There is no provision in the code for the determination by the Probate Court of attorneys' fees in proceedings for termination of joint tenancy or a life estate. No request for fees for services of this character shall be included in any petition for fees in an estate matter, and if so included, will be disallowed. (7/1/99)

PETITIONS SETTING ASIDE ESTATES AND SPOUSAL PROPERTY PETITIONS

8.97 Petition to Set Aside Under Probate Code §6600-§6613 or For Letters

A petition to set aside under Prob.Code §6600, et seq. may be filed as a separate petition or may be worded in the alternative, i.e., the petition may pray for admission of the will and for letters testamentary or for letters of administration if the petition to set aside should be denied. If a petition to set aside is filed separately and concurrently with a petition for admission of the will or for letters of administration, the petitions should be set for hearing at the same time. (7/1/99)

8.98 Spousal Property Petition-Probate Code §13650

For example, if it is alleged the decedent and surviving spouse owned as community property a piece of real property, the decedent's undivided one-half (1/2) interest in such property should be listed on one schedule and the surviving spouse's one-half (1/2) interest in the same property listed on another schedule.
- B. In addition to the allegations required by law, a petition to determine and/or confirm community property should contain as many of the following allegations as are relevant:
1. Date and place of marriage to surviving spouse.
 2. Whether or not decedent owned any real or personal property on date of marriage, and if so, descriptions and appropriate values.
 3. Decedent's net worth at time of marriage.

 6. Date decedent first came to California after marriage.
 7. Any additional facts upon which claim of community property is based. If the claim of community property is based on any document, a copy thereof

8.99 Petition to Succeed to Real and Personal Property Probate Code § 13150

CONSERVATORSHIPS

8.114 Appointment of Temporary Conservator

- A. If a Temporary Conservatorship is needed, a Petition for Appointment of a Temporary Conservator must be filed concurrently with, or subsequent to, the filing of a petition for appointment of a general conservator. Notice of an ex parte application is required to be given pursuant to Prob. Code § 2250(e).
- B. Prior to the date set for the ex parte hearing, all petitions and documents pertinent to the temporary application shall be reviewed by the Court Investigator and the Probate Examiner. The petition shall state the facts giving rise to the need for the temporary conservatorship.

A petition will go to the judge only if it is procedurally correct and if the required notice has been given or dispensed with.

Unless some degree of urgency is present, the Court ordinarily will not entertain an ex parte application for appointment of temporary conservator.

If no opposition is presented and the matter appears appropriate, the Court may grant the petition. (7/1/13)

8.115 Appointment of General Conservator

Petitions for appointment of general conservators are set on calendar for hearing at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday through Thursday.

- A. Ex parte hearings before the Judge are set as directed by the Court. (7/1/21)
- B. Subpoenas for long cause matters set out 30 days or more must be personally served on the applicable Court Investigator 30 days prior to the hearing along with the required $275.00 payable to the Stanislaus County Superior Court. The Court finds that 30 days is a reasonable period of time as required by statute.

Petitions for appointment of a conservator shall be set for hearing at least forty-five (45) days after the date of filing. Although only a fifteen (15) day notice is required by the Probate Code, the additional time is necessary to insure that the proceeding is not delayed because the Court Investigator did not have sufficient time to complete the investigation. (7/1/13, 7/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

8.116 Investigation Fees re: Conservator

When a petition requests appointment of a conservator of the person or estate, a conservatorship investigation fee must be paid to the clerk in addition to the regular filing fee. Counsel and parties are advised to contact the Clerk's Office for the amount of the current investigation fee. If it appears that the payment of the fee would cause a hardship, the fee may be waived upon application to the Court. (7/1/99)

8.117 Conservator's Handbook

Each proposed conservator (including proposed temporary conservators) must purchase the Conservator's Handbook from the Probate Division of the Clerk's Office before the Court will consider the person's petition for appointment.

The Public Guardian, corporate fiduciaries, banks and other entities authorized to conduct the business of a trust company are exempt from this requirement. All other proposed conservators, including private professional conservators, must meet this requirement once. (7/1/13)

8.118 Proceedings for a Proposed Transaction Probate Code § 3100 et. seq.

Before a petition for an order authorizing a proposed transaction can be granted, the Court must make several findings, including those listed in Probate Code § 3144, and specifically that one spouse lacks the legal capacity to complete the transaction and that the other spouse either has legal capacity or has a conservator. The petition and order shall include a request for those findings.

In order for the Court to make a finding that a spouse lacks legal capacity, there must be presented with Petition a declaration from a doctor or medical practitioner that complies with Probate Code § 810, 811 and 812. The declaration must specifically state that the person lacks the capacity to make a decision or perform the specific act required to complete the transaction. (1/1/02)

8.119 Substituted Judgment – Special Needs Trust Probate Code § 2580

Any party filing a petition for substituted judgment must use due diligence to fully inform the Court of all relevant circumstances. The petitioning party must use due diligence to inform the Court of everything a reasonable person in the conservatee's position would have wanted to know before deciding whether or not a proposed action should be taken.

The Court may appoint counsel for the conservatee. If the matter is contested, the Court may also order the Court Investigator to investigate and report to the Court.

Stanislaus County Superior Court

If the Court grants a petition for the exercise of substituted judgment, the order after hearing shall contain the findings required by Probate Code § 2582.

If a trust is established pursuant to the substituted judgment statutes for a conservatee, the Court will require annual accountings of all trust assets and the trust shall remain under the jurisdiction of the Probate Court. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

Stanislaus County Superior Court

GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS

8.120 Independent Powers

The Court may, on the petition of the conservator or guardian, either at the time of appointment or later, grant additional independent powers to the conservator or guardian as authorized by Probate Code §§ 2590 and 2591. Additional independent powers are not lightly granted. The petition must state for each Probate Code § 2591 power requested, the facts and reasons which justify the independent exercise of the power. Additionally, if the power to sell or encumber a conservatee's present or former personal residence is requested, the information required under Probate Code § 2540(b) must be included in the petition by way of a declaration the first time the conservator seeks authority to encumber, list or sell the conservatee's present or former personal residence. The Court will grant only those independent powers necessary or proper under the specific circumstances of each case. Any powers so granted must be set forth at length in the order and in the letters of conservatorship.

Where the power is granted to sell real property (thereby eliminating the need to publish notice of sale), the Court requires the sale to be confirmed by the Court. (7/1/99)

8.125 Accounts – Matter to Be Included

All accounts must include the information required by Prob. Code §§2620 and 1060 et. seq.

Market values for assets without a ready market shown on the schedule of estimated market values required pursuant to Prob. Code § 1063(a) should not reflect changes from carry value unless the method of evaluation is fully explained. If there is no reasonable method of valuation that complies with Prob. Code § 1063(a), but there has been a significant event that affects the value of the asset, such as a flood or other damage, the event should be disclosed in footnote to the schedule.

Where there are multiple wards joined in a single guardianship proceeding an account shall reflect a separate accounting for each of the respective wards.

A copy of the bank statements which include the ending date of the accounting period for each bank account, mutual fund account, brokerage account or other investment account shall be attached to every accounting filed.

Final accounts for deceased wards or conservatees shall include separate accounts for transactions before the date of death and transactions after the date of death in accordance with Prob. Code § 2620. If the distribution upon termination of guardianship or conservatorship of the estate is to be made to a fiduciary appointed in another Court action, such as a probate estate, a certified copy of the Letters of Appointment shall be filed with the account. If distribution is to be made pursuant to Prob. Code § 13100, the affidavit or declaration required therein shall be filed with the report. (1/1/08, 7/1/21)

8.126 Report by Court Investigator

The Court Investigator shall file a report with the Court in respect to each accounting filed unless the conservatee is deceased. In addition to those requirements set forth in Prob. Code §§ 1513, 1826, 1894, 1951 and 2684, the Investigator shall review the account to ascertain that it is in compliance with Prob. Code § 1060 et. seq. and whether the disbursements are appropriate. (1/1/08, 7/1/21)

8.127 Dispense with Account – When Permitted

A. The Court will consider dispensing with accounts so long as the estate of the ward or conservatee meet the requirements of Prob. Code § 2628. In certain circumstances, the Court may approve an order dispensing with accounts on an ex parte basis. In order to avoid additional expense to the estate, a party may make such an application using optional Local Form PR-002 “Ex parte Petition to Dispense with Accounts and Orders Thereon”. This form is available on the Court’s website at <https://www.stanislaus.courts.ca.gov/>. ADOPTIONS AND RELATED MATTERS

8.141 General

Upon the filing of any adoption petition or adoption-related matter (including termination of parental rights and freedom from custody and control), the clerk of the Court will send notice of pendency of action to the appropriate investigating agencies. Petitioners are responsible for submitting all moving papers, the appropriate fees, and all additional information required, to the investigating agency. (1/1/04)

8.142 Finalization

Adoptions may not be set for finalization hearing until all of the following have been completed:

- A. The written consents of both birth parents, if living, have been filed with the Court by the Petitioners or by the adoption agency, or all birth parents' rights have been terminated and the appeal period has expired on the order terminating parental rights (an exception is required by termination cases filed under Family Code § 8604). Termination of parental rights is required prior to adoption finalization in every case where a living parent does not consent, even if the identity or location of the non-consenting parent is unknown. (7/1/21)
- B. The adoption agency or investigating agency has filed with the Court its written report to recommend granting or denying the petition, and the agency has also filed with the Court the completed and signed Court Report of Adoption (State Form VS-44).
- C. Petitioners have submitted to the adoption clerk an unsigned Consent and Agreement to Adoption; the proposed Decree of Adoption; and a Request for Default or Uncontested Hearing (Stanislaus County Local Form). (7/1/99)

8.143 Independent Adoptions

Within thirty (30) days of filing, Petitioners shall be responsible for forwarding a file marked copy of the adoption petition to the appropriate District Office of the State Department of Social Services. For Stanislaus County residents, this is: SDSS Adoptions Branch, Oakland Regional Office, 1515 Clay Street, Suite 1204, Oakland, CA 94612; tel: (510) 622-2650. (7/1/99, 7/1/21)

It is Petitioners' responsibility to forward a file marked copy of the petition to the appropriate investigating agency within ten (10) days of filing, and to cooperate as necessary for the agency to complete that investigation. Petitioners will be expected to provide the investigating agency with all possible information regarding the identity and whereabouts of the alleged father. (7/1/21)

- A. If the termination action is filed pursuant to an agency adoption, the adoption agency is responsible for filing the report.
- B. If the termination action is filed pursuant to an independent adoption, the Oakland District Office of the State Department of Social Services, Adoptions Branch, is responsible for filing the report.
- C. If the action is filed pursuant to a step-parent adoption, the Stanislaus County Community Services Agency, Child Welfare Section, or their designee is responsible for filing the report.

Petitioners must also provide the Investigator with contact information such as telephone numbers and addresses, for themselves, the minor(s), and the birth parents (to the extent known).

B. Notice to Parent

At least ten (10) days prior to the hearing, Petitioners must complete personal service of the citation on the parent(s) from whom the child is being freed from custody. If the whereabouts of a parent is unknown, Petitioners may submit an ex parte application to the Court for an order permitting service by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the parent's last known residence. In accordance with Family Code § 7882, this application will only be granted if it is supported by a declaration from Petitioners and other persons with knowledge as to the efforts made with due diligence to locate the absent parent. Due diligence will normally include, but is not limited to, checking telephone listings, searching on the Internet, conducting postal and voter registration records searches, and contacting known relatives, friends, and former employers of the alleged father for information.
